Critiquing Generative AI in Africa's Media Ecosystems Lungile A. Tshuma,Trust Matsilele,2025-11-17 This book takes a critical approach to the rise of Artificial Intelligence AI within the media and communication landscape The book argues that as technology is a social construct reflecting existing power dynamics those in the Global South and in Africa in particular are bound to be marginalised and have their knowledge systems overlooked as the Global North dominates technological developments The birth of AI has ignited debates about its benefits to lower income countries with some highlighting its potential to advance businesses and grow economies However this book argues that AI tools have been produced to serve Western needs and that instead there is a need for countries in Africa to have home grown solutions defined by local values Drawing on case studies and analysis from across the continent the book seeks to caution challenge and proffer solutions to the use and understanding of Generative AI for media and communication in non western societies At a time when generative AI is threatening to shape the future of media and communication around the world this book is a vital and timely contribution to debates within critical data studies and African media studies

Treatment Program Evaluation Allyson Kelley,2022-06-01 This invaluable text provides a rigorous guide to the assessment and evaluation of treatment programs through a multi disciplinary holistic model of care It highlights issues of race social justice and health equity and offers real world guidance to effect community healing and transformation Written by a researcher and experienced evaluator the book begins by outlining the theories and research which frame our understanding of substance misuse and upon which treatment programs are based It then examines the principles which should underpin any evaluation before detailing the practical various steps required to conduct an evaluation from data collection to outcome measurement The book shows too through detailed and effective evaluation policy changes can be made and treatment programs improved Including practical examples of evaluation and assessment throughout and also assessing the numerous social systems which can support recovery the book builds to a four step public health model for establishing sustainable treatment programs In an era where substance misuse has reached epidemic proportions in the United States and beyond this book will be essential reading for anyone involved in public health policy and practice in this important area IoT, Cloud and Data Science S.
