Talent Development and the Global Economy Fredrick. M. Nafukho, Khali Dirani, Beverly Irby, 2017-08-01 Talent has been identified as the only differentiator for an organization's nations or any region's success in this uncertain complex competitive and global environment Ulrich 2008 defined talent as the equation of 3Cs Talent Competence x Commitment x Contribution Malaeb and Chanaron 2010 p 2 noted Competence means that employees have the skills and abilities today and in the future for required business results Commitment means that employees are involved and engaged while Contribution means that employees find personal abundance at occupation While Ulrich 2008 observed that commitment focused on meaning and identity and other restraints that tap employee's heart This book is unique in many ways which makes it extraordinary First unlike other books that have examined issues of change facing the global economy no book has examined the issue of talent development from the perspective of special interest groups including management international students women refugees refugees non governmental organizations for profit for benefit and nonprofit organizations Thus talent development world over has become one of the most important issues when it comes to developing human resources especially through education and training The book presents pertinent research and practice on talent development management and argues that the term talent development broadly refers to management and development of high performing and high potential individuals in society required to carry out critical organizational and society roles aimed at improving human development The contributors of the book chapters include individuals actively involved in research teaching and practice in higher education and in business and industry The chapters are based on empirical data including review of relevant literature The book also recognizes that talent development is more than just crisis management and includes best talent management practices shared governance meaningful reforms strategic planning transparency and accountability social justice and respect for human life and the need to develop humane organizations and humane communities The contributions take cognizance of the fact that talent development as a concept is facing fundamental changes in the global knowledge economy and especially with political changes taking place world over Contributors also take cognizance of the fact that one important source of change in society has been the accelerating speed of scientific and technological advancement driven by the power of the Internet hence the need to develop talent for the 21st century and beyond The book is basically an academic book for use by undergraduates and graduate students at universities for profit for benefit and non profit organizations policy makers and formulators in ministries of Education supra national organizations foreign organizations multilateral organizations non governmental organizations community based organizations as well as development stakeholders and community organizers
