Approaches to Teaching the Works of Margaret Atwood Lauren Rule Maxwell, 2025-12-12 Against the backdrop of climate change the COVID 19 pandemic and attacks on democracy and women's rights the works of Margaret Atwood help readers make sense of the world around them Active since the 1960s Atwood is one of Canada's most esteemed authors and continues to shape public discourse both in her newest works and in the recent television and graphic novel adaptations of The Handmaid's Tale The essays in this volume offer approaches to teaching her writing in a variety of genres including speculative fiction historical fiction poetry and adaptations of classic literary works Part 1 Materials provides print and online resources for studying Atwood's works Part 2 Approaches addresses classes from high school through the graduate level at community colleges HBCUs and other institutions The essays propose engaging activities for courses focused on environmental literature crime and justice women s studies leadership creative writing world literature and Canadian literature Teaching controversial issues in Secondary Education Delfín

Ortega-Sánchez, Esther Sanz De La Cal, Jaime Ibáñez Quintana, Eduardo Encabo-Fernández, 2025-04-01 Despite the difficulties in defining the concept of controversial issue it can be stated that it has general characteristics based on the integration of conflicting values and interests on the presence of individual or social sensitivities and on the potential generation of emotions Its approach leads to multiple solutions open to discussion such as climate change terrorism or war From the theoretical principles of education for global citizenship the development and acquisition of social competences aimed at providing solutions to contemporary controversial issues is expected The didactic treatment of these contents favors the contrast of argued perspectives elective rationality in decision making in controversial or problematic contexts and social commitment as an inherent part of the democratic process Reputation in Business Stuart Thomson, 2022-09-28 A compelling mix of reputation management crisis leadership and the role of politics in business this book provides unique practical steps that leaders can take to protect their reputations and those of the organisations they head in an ever more open social media led world Although leaders increasingly recognise the vital intangible asset that reputation represents too many do not really understand what reputation is and the steps that should be taken to build it and their corporate value Given the range of factors depending on the organisation each aspect of its complex reputational story needs to be unpicked if a reputation is to be built maintained and protected This step by step guide offers advice on how to develop the strategies needed to do this provides clear lessons throughout from a range of experts and distinctively looks beyond the corporate sector to charities governments NGOs and the public sector Boards trustees non executive directors senior management and leaders of all types of organisations need to consider the steps that should be taken to build maintain and defend their reputation and that means knowing what their reputation is and the audiences that matter most to them This book is the roadmap Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter, Dirk Rupnow, Éva Kovács, Marianne Windsperger, 2024-09-23 The World

Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public
