reflections about our Creator and the lives we live It considers our beliefs about God Is our image of God big enough Do we picture God near enough And the book acknowledges we all live imperfectly in an imperfect world yet it affirms that even with our faults God is loving and forgiving and is Father How people believe or do not believe in God affects their whole lives and every action With short reflections this book seeks to help the reader think about these issues The hope is that each of us can improve with the belief that a powerful almighty caring Father God is with us The message is positive and encouraging in nontechnical language and is written for ordinary people living in complicated and often unexpected circumstances Its tone
