Doing Foreign Language Bringing Concordia Language Villages Into Language Classrooms:

Doing Foreign Language Heidi Ehernberger Hamilton, Cori Crane, Abigail Bartoshesky, 2005 A supplement for ESL Methods courses and K 12 Middle and Secondary Foreign Language Methods courses This practical supplement is based on the work of Minnesota's Concordia Language Villages the oldest and most extensive live in summer language camp program for elementary and secondary students in the United States Inspired by the collaboration among the Villages the National Capital Language Resource Center the Center for Applied Linguistics and the Center for Advanced Research on Language Acquisition the authors offer lesson plans and supporting activities that capture the essence of this hugely successful program and translated it into equally successful programs for traditional foreign language classrooms

Linguistic Landscapes Beyond the Language Classroom Greg Niedt, Corinne A. Seals, 2020-12-10 Linguistic landscapes can play an important role in educating individuals beyond formal pedagogical environments This book argues that anywhere can be a space for people to learn from displayed texts images and other communicated signs and consequently a space where teachable cultural moments are created Following language learning trajectories that exit through the language classroom into city streets public offices museums and monuments this volume presents innovative work demonstrating that anyone can learn from the linguistic landscape that surrounds them Offering a bridge between theoretical research and practical application chapters consider how we make sense of places by understanding how the landscape is used to express claim and contest identities and ideologies In this way Linguistic Landscapes Beyond the Language Classroom highlights the unexpected potential of the informal settings for learning and for teachers to expand their students intercultural experience

Identity and Second Language Learning Miguel Mantero, 2006-12-01 This collection of research has attempted to capture the essence and promise embodied in the concept of identity and built a bridge to the realm of second language studies However the reader will notice that we did not build just one link This volume brings to light the diversity of research in identity and second language studies that are grounded the notions of community instructors and students language immersion and study abroad pop culture and music religion code switching and media The chapters reflect the efforts of contributors from Canada Japan Norway New Zealand the United Arab Emirates and the United States who performed their research in the countries just mentioned and in other regions around the world Because of this this volume truly offers an international perspective

Learning Pragmatics from Native and Nonnative Language Teachers Andrew D. Cohen, 2018-05-25 This book deals with intercultural pragmatics and how both nonnative teachers NNTs and native teachers NTs may enhance their classroom instruction regarding target language TL pragmatics It focuses primarily on the experiences of instructors as they teach their learners about the pragmatics of the TL both in second and foreign language learning settings It makes clear that there are aspects of teaching pragmatics where it may help to be an NT and other areas where it may help to be an NNT and proposes creative ideas that both sets of teachers may draw on to compensate for gaps in their knowledge Further themes in the book include ideas for motivating students who want to learn about pragmatics the role of technology in teaching and learning pragmatics the role of learning strategies the assessment of pragmatics and ways to research pragmatics The book will be of interest to teachers teacher educators and students interested in researching and improving the teaching of pragmatics
