Doing Rhetorical History Concepts And Cases Studies In Rhetoric And Communication:

Doing Rhetorical History Kathleen J. Turner, 1998 Collectively their work tests theory and complements criticism while standing as a distinct and valid approach in and of itself Valley of Heart's Delight Anne Marie Todd, 2022-10-25 This agricultural history explores the transformation of the Santa Clara Valley over the past one hundred years from America's largest fruit producing region into the technology capital of the world In the latter half of the twentieth century the region's focus shifted from fruits such as apricots and prunes to computers Both personal and public rhetoric reveals how a sense of place emerges and changes in an evolving agricultural community like the Santa Clara Valley Through extensive archival research and interviews Anne Marie Todd explores the concepts of place and placelessness arguing that place is more than a physical location and that exploring a community's sense of place can help us to map how individuals experience their natural surroundings and their sense of responsibility towards the local environment Todd extends the concept of sense of place to describe Silicon Valley as a non place where weakened or disrupted attachment to place threatens the environment and community The story of the Santa Clara Valley is an American story of the development of agricultural lands and the transformation of rural regions Non-Western Colonization, Orientalism, and the Comfort Women Ako Inuzuka, 2021-06-01 Non Western Colonization Orientalism and the Comfort Women The Collective Memory of Sexual Slavery under the Japanese Imperial Military examines the collective memory of sexual slavery under the Japanese Imperial Military in Japan over the past seventy five years Euphemistically known as the comfort women tens of thousands of young females were forced into sexual servitude for Japanese soldiers during the Asia Pacific War The majority of these women are believed to have been deceitfully or forcibly taken from Korea a former Japanese colony The ways in which sexual slavery has been remembered in Japan lies at the root of a long standing diplomatic conflict between Japan and South Korea and has fueled a memory war among Japanese scholars and activists The author argues that Korean comfort women have been exoticized in the collective memory similarly to Oriental women's presentations by Western Orientalists This book is a comprehensive analysis of the memory of sexual slavery in Japan examining various artifacts produced since the end of the Asia Pacific War including nonfiction books novels newspaper articles popular and documentary films and a commemorative museum It provides novel insights into a decade old international and domestic controversy Rhetoric in Martial Deliberations and Decision Making Ronald H. Carpenter, 2004 In this study of the discourse involved in martial deliberations Ronald H Carpenter examines the rhetoric employed by naval and military commanders as they recommend specific tactics and strategies to peers as well as presidents Drawing on ideas of rhetorical thinking from Aristotle to Kenneth Burke Carpenter identifies two concepts of particular importance to the military decision making process prudence and the representative anecdote Rhetoric and Public Affairs , 1999 Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1991 Twentieth-Century Roots of Rhetorical Studies Jim A. Kuypers, Andrew King, 2001-03-30 An exploration of the conception of rhetoric of 11 key American rhetoricians through analyses of their life s work The essays examine the innate mode of perception that guided the rhetorical understanding of the early critics Defining Americans Mary E. Stuckey,2004 Ranging broadly from Andrew Jackson to Bill Clinton and George W Bush Stuckey demonstrates how presidents accomplish the dual enactment of inclusion and exclusion through their rhetorical and political choices Our early leaders were preoccupied with balancing the growing nation later presidents were concerned with the nature and definitions of citizenship By examining the political speeches of presidents exemplifying distinctly different circumstances she presents a series of snapshots which when taken together reveal both the continuity and the changes in our national self understanding Preaching the Inward Light Michael P. Graves,2009 Well researched and well written Preaching the Inward Light is a timely look backward to these spirited people

Argumentation and Advocacy ,2002 American Exceptionalism and the Shoah David L. Worthington,2007 This dissertation analyzes the rhetoric of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum as a site that constructs articulates and advances an ideology of American exceptionalism The critical thrust of the project is to demonstrate how the museum produces a narrow set of terministic screens for understanding American connections to the European holocaust that make it difficult to productively engage problematic instances of U S history such as slavery and the genocide of the native Americans To this end the study focuses on public debates surrounding the founding and placement of the museum the narrative of the museum s Permanent Exhibit the physical exhibits that shape American exceptionalism and the ways in which visitors respond to the museum story in comment books The argument unfolds in 5 stages The first stage examines the ways in which public debate during the museum s planning stages took up the issue of the propriety of a Holocaust museum in the U S and then addressed where the museum would be located and what kind of narrative would be consistent with placing the museum in close proximity to the National Mall Stage two explores the museum s insistence on a strictly defined and overly simplistic narrative that marks the participants in the Shoah as victims perpetrators or liberators Stage three focuses on the narrative of the museum s Permanent Exhibit where the museum interpellates visitors as witnesses without providing a clear sense of what the act of witnessing entails In the fourth stage citizenship is made passive by exhibits that evoke a sense of tragedy and atrocity that exists over there in Europe and whose victims are other and outside the bounds and protection of American style liberal democracy Stage four shifts focus from the narrative as articulated by museum curators and towards the way visitors respond to the museum in comment books and in particular on the most common response by museum visitors that they feel sad Sadness I argue is a problematic public emotion that represses civic action The project concludes in stage five by discussing ways in which exhibits might be added that would widen our terministic understanding of the past so as to allow for a more productive consideration of the ways in which and the topos of atrocity implicates the politics of genocide Rhetorical Vectors of Memory in National and International Holocaust Trials Marouf Arif Hasian (Jr.),2006 During the past several decades the twentieth century Holocaust has become a defining event in many histories Hasian reviews how national and international courts have used Holocaust trials as forums for debates about individuated justice historical record keeping and pedagogical memory work

Critical Reflections on the Cold War Martin J. Medhurst,H. W. Brands,2000 Rhetoric and history intersected dramatically during the Cold War which was above all else a war of words This volume which combines the work of historians and communication scholars examines the public discourse in Cold War America from a number of perspectives including how rhetoric shaped history and policies and how rhetorical images invited interpretations of history The book opens with Norman Graebner s wideranging analysis of the rhetorical background of the Cold War Frank Costigliola then parses Stalin s speech of February 1946 an address that many in the West took as a declaration of war by the USSR The development of NSC68 in 1950 often referred to as America s blueprint for fighting the Cold War is the subject of Robert P Newman s review Shawn J ParryGiles and J Michael Hogan then focus on American propaganda responses to the perceived Soviet threat H W Brands Randall B Woods and Rachel L Holloway examine the effects of liberal ideology and rhetoric on domestic and foreign policy decisions Robert J McMahon and Robert L Ivie raise the issue of what it has meant to be the leader of the Free World and what the task of postCold War rhetoric will be in this regard Scholars concerned with the role of words in public life and in the study of history will find challenging material in this interdisciplinary volume Historians speech communication scholars and political scientists with an interest in the Cold War will similarly find grist for further milling
