Doing Time 25 Years Of Prison Writing From The Pen Program:

Doing Time Bell Gale Chevigny, 2011-11-01 A special collection of the best fiction essays poetry and plays from annual PEN Prison Writing contest offers unique insights into the emotions and thoughts engendered by the prison experience ranging from humor and empathy to rage fear and despair 15 000 first printing

Doing Time Bell Gale Chevigny, 1999 Doing time For the prison writers whose work is included in this anthology it means more than serving a sentence it means staying alive and sane preserving dignity reinventing oneself and somehow retaining one's humanity Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities Mary Bosworth, 2005 Are included Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

Doing Time Bell Gale Chevigny, 1999 Doing Time stirs readers by heightening their awareness of the struggle of men and women behind bars to keep their humanity This collection of the best of PEN's annual prison writing contest celebrates fifty one writers and their ability not only to write with passion and eloquence but also to create art in the most dire of circumstances

Prose and Cons D. Quentin Miller, 2005-10-04 As the United States prison population has exploded over the past 30 years a rich provocative and ever increasing body of literature has emerged written either by prisoners or by those who have come in close contact with them Unlike earlier prison writings contemporary literature moves in directions that are neither uniformly ideological nor uniformly political It has become increasingly personal and the obsessive subject is the way identity is shaped compromised altered or obliterated by incarceration The 14 essays in this work examine the last 30 years of prison literature from a wide variety of perspectives The first four essays examine race and ethnicity the social categories most evident in U S prisons The three essays in the next section explore gender a prominent subject of prison literature highlighted by the absolute separation of male and female inmates Section three provides three essays focused on the part ideology plays in prison writings The four essays in section four consider how aesthetics and language are used seeking to define the qualities of the literature and to determine some of the reasons it exists

New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement Lisa Gail Collins, Margo Natalie Crawford, 2006-05-16 During the 1960s and 1970s a cadre of poets playwrights visual artists musicians and other visionaries came together to create a renaissance in African American literature and art This charged chapter in the history of African American culture which came to be known as the Black Arts Movement has remained largely neglected by subsequent generations of critics New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement includes essays that reexamine well known figures such as Amiri Baraka Larry Neal Gwendolyn Brooks Sonia Sanchez Betye Saar Jeff Donaldson and Haki Madhubuti In addition the anthology expands the scope of the movement by offering essays that explore the racial and sexual politics of the era links with other period cultural movements the arts in prison the role of Black colleges and universities gender politics and the rise of feminism color fetishism photography music and more An invigorating look at a movement that has long begged for reexamination this collection lucidly interprets the complex debates that surround this tumultuous era and demonstrates that the celebration of this movement need not be separated from its
