The Origins of the Exhibition Space (1450-1750) Pamela Bianchi,2025-10-01 Before the first purpose designed exhibition spaces and painting exhibitions emerged showing art was mainly related to the habit of dressing up spaces for political commemorations religious festivals and marketing strategies Palaces cloisters fa ades squares and shops became temporary and privileged venues for art display where sociability was performed and the idea of exhibition developed What were those places and events What aesthetic cultural social and political discourses intersected with the early idea of exhibition space How did displaying art shape a new vocabulary within these events and conversely how have these occasions conditioned exhibiting practices This book traces the origins of the exhibition space by studying its visual and written imagery in the early modern period It reconsiders events and habits that contributed to shaping the imagery of the exhibition space and to defining exhibition making practices exploring micro histories and long term changes

Renaissance Siena A. Lawrence Jenkins,2005-08-01 The art of Renaissance Siena is usually viewed in the light of developments and accomplishments achieved elsewhere but Sienese artists were part of a dynamic dialogue that was shaped by their city s internal political turmoil diplomatic relationships with its neighbors internal social hierarchies and struggle for self definition These essays lead scholars in a new and exciting direction in the study of the art of Renaissance Siena exploring the cultural dynamics of the city and its art in a specifically Sienese context This volume shapes a new understanding of Sienese culture in the early modern period and defines the questions scholars will continue to ask for years to come What emerges is a picture of Renaissance Siena as a city focused on meeting the challenges of the time while formulating changes to shape its future Central to these changes are the city s efforts to fashion a civic identity through the visual arts
