The History of Lexicography Reinhard Hartmann, 1986-01-01 Most dictionaries have forerunners and all have imitators. An understanding of the historical foundations of dictionary making is therefore one of the preconditions of further progress in academic lexicography. The papers in this volume which were presented at the 1986 Exeter Seminar survey most of the lexicographical traditions in the world, some tracing them right back to their beginnings. The programme was divided into eight sessions with the following concentrations of topics: 1 three classical traditions 2 the early history of European lexicography 3 the beginnings of English lexicography 4 further aspects of English lexicography 5 the background of diverse national developments 6 specific features of national developments 7 pioneers of three genres 8 recent trends in the English dictionary.

Semantics and Lexicography Herbert Ernst Wiegand, 2011-05-02 This volume is a compilation of nine articles translated from German. They deal with those lexicographic texts or text excerpts which have been formulated in order to convey the meaning of a lexical unit to a potential dictionary user who is not familiar with that meaning. The articles not only critically analyze lexicographic practice in particular the so-called lexicographic definitions and the items giving the synonyms in correlation with the examples in the light of different semantic approaches. They also present ways towards a common understanding in the context of lexicographically imparting knowledge of meaning, i.e. on the basis of an actional semantics approach which takes into account results obtained from analyses of everyday dialogs about word meanings. Moreover, they discuss how meaning conveying texts can serve their purposes in dictionary look-up situations and they lay out all those aspects which are particularly to be taken into consideration in the formulation of lexicographic texts aimed at conveying meaning in dictionaries belonging to different types.
