Arturo Pérez-Reverte Anne L. Walsh, 2007 The complex narrative technique of one of Spain s most renowned contemporary authors The writings of Arturo P rez Reverte one of Spain s most renowned contemporary authors have been described as a minefield This monograph examines the complexities behind the narrative technique employed in creating such a minefield including an analysis of the role played by both male and female characters the relevance of the past as a motif and aspects of the role of storytelling in creating mystery where none should exist Both Revertian novels and journalistic writing are seen to be part of an over all game which is played between their author and his readers Film too forms part of the material reviewed as though P rez Reverte is not a script writer many films have been based on his novels The text centred analysis concludes that the themes of interest in all Revertian output revolve around two main areas the significance of the past whether historical cultural or literary and the role of the written word in communicating in rescuing and in challenging versions of that past in order to combat what Pérez-Reverte terms dismemory

Lucas Corso middle aged tired and cynical is a book detective a mercenary hired to hunt down rare editions for wealthy and unscrupulous clients When a well known bibliophile is found hanged leaving behind part of the original manuscript of Alexandre Dumas's The Three Musketeers Corso is brought in to authenticate the fragment The task seems straightforward but the unsuspecting Corso is soon drawn into a swirling plot involving devil worship occult practices and swashbuckling derring do among a cast of characters bearing a suspicious resemblance to those of Dumas's masterpiece Aided by a mysterious beauty named for a Conan Doyle heroine Corso travels from Madrid to Toledo to Paris in pursuit of a sinister and seemingly omniscient killer A cross between Umberto Eco and Anne Rice Think of The Club Dumas as a beach book for intellectuals New York Daily News Part mystery part puzzle part witty intertextual game The Club Dumas is a wholly original intellectual thriller by the internationally bestselling author of The Flanders Panel and The Seville Communion Lucas Corso's search for the original copy of a book of the occult takes him from Madrid to Paris and into a secret society of antiquarians

Investigating Identities Marieke Krajenbrink, Kate M. Quinn, 2009 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction
