Challenging the Giant John T. Gatto, Chris Mercogliano, 1999-04-01

The Alchemy of Illness Kat Duff, 1993 Illness is a universal experience There is no privilege that can make us immune to its touch We are taught to assume health illnesses being just temporary breakdowns in the well oiled machinery of the body But illness has its own geography its own laws and commandments At a time when the attention of the whole nation is focused on health care Kat Duff inquires into the nature and function of illness itself Duff a counselor in private practice in Taos New Mexico wrote this book out of her experience with chronic fatigue syndrome but what she has to say is applicable to every illness and every one of us For those who are sick this book offers solace and recognition For those who care for them either physically or emotionally it offers inspiration and compassion Finally this fresh perspective on healing reveals how every illness is a crucible that tries our mettle tests our limits and provides us with an unparalleled opportunity to integrate its lessons into our lives

Weapons of Mass Instruction John Taylor Gatto, 2010-04-01 The transformation of schooling from a twelve year jail sentence to freedom to learn John Taylor Gatto s Weapons of Mass Instruction now available in paperback focuses on mechanisms of traditional education which cripple imagination discourage critical thinking and create a false view of learning as a byproduct of rote memorization drills Gatto s earlier book Dumbing Us Down introduced the now famous expression of the title into the common vernacular Weapons of Mass Instruction adds another chilling metaphor to the brief against conventional schooling Gatto demonstrates that the harm school inflicts is rational and deliberate The real function of pedagogy he argues is to render the common population manageable To that end young people must be conditioned to rely upon experts to remain divided from natural alliances and to accept disconnections from their own lived experiences They must at all costs be discouraged from developing self reliance and independence Escaping this trap requires a strategy Gatto calls open source learning which imposes no artificial divisions between learning and life Through this alternative approach

our children can avoid being indoctrinated only then can they achieve self knowledge good judgment and courage

System vs. Culture: North American Education and Society in the Balance Frank Pace, 2014-05 For 160 years North American children have been subject to compulsory schooling Formal education has evolved some over that time but the end result of said evolution is an educational system which is dysfunctional inefficient and ultimately incapable of delivering on its professed mandates Frank Pace is an educator with years of diverse experience In System vs Culture North American Education and Society in the Balance he looks at the current state of compulsory North American education and sees a system in crisis He examines the history of modern education and dissects the root causes of its profound dysfunction System vs Culture North American Education and Society in the Balance offers some insight into how an alternative model of education might operate and how it would better serve the needs of a changing society and better achieve its purported goals Frank Pace has many important things to say about the state of North American education His arguments are persuasive and lucid and backed up by solid scholarship While the topic is complicated he does a good job breaking it down in a way that is readable and compelling for both education professionals and anyone interested in education and learning
