Dying Community:

The Dying Community Art Gallaher, Harland Padfield, 1980 Community Action against Racism in West Las Vegas
Robert J. McKee, 2014-02-27 This book chronicles Robert J McKee's active participation in a successful protest action led primarily by black females in the historically African American community of West Las Vegas Nevada from 2008-2013. The residents protested the closure of a main street F Street in their community for the expansion of Interstate 15. The community felt the street closure was racially motivated with the intent of further alienating and isolating this already marginalized community. The street closure was one of many instances in a protracted history of events that further exacerbated race relations in Las Vegas. With only minimal support from the black church, courageous women mobilized their community from a neighborhood coalition into a successful community protest group despite resistance from city officials and a racist backlash from some Las Vegas residents. The key players in this work were then Mayor Oscar Goodman, State Senator and now U.S. Congressman Steven Horsford, and a host of local and state leaders. The closing of F Street creates an environment for McKee to discuss the current problems of race relations, urban sociology, city planning, social action, ethnography, and institutionalized racism.

The Home David N. Benjamin, 2024-11-07 Originally published in 1995 as part of the Ethnoscapes: Current Challenges in the Environmental Social Sciences series, reissued now with a new series introduction. The Home: Words, Interpretations, Meanings, and Environments, written by leading theorists and empirical researchers, offers an interdisciplinary and multi-cultural spectrum of viewpoints on the study of the home concept. Among the disciplines covered are environment, behaviour research, anthropology, geography, archaeology, architecture, political science, and linguistics, place name research. The authors in this volume focus on refining our concepts of home, our knowledge of the uses of home, and the relationship of home to the study of cultural interpretation. In so doing, they inspire our thinking on the following themes: the struggle to maintain cultural continuity in the face of socio-political change and the attempts to humanize the present and future built environment. This volume will be interesting to all scholars of cultural interpretation, geographers, and architects, and at the same time useful in graduate studies, courses in environmental social sciences, and environmental design as reference and source of cutting-edge case studies.

Reconciling Community and Subjective Life
Magdalena Zolkos, 2013-02-14 This is an examination of the difficult interplay between the collective pursuit of justice and reconciliation on one hand and the individual subjective experience of trauma on the other, proposing that it be thought of as a potentially productive tension. To do so, Zolkos looks at how texts from Jean Améry and Imre Kertész speak to the question of the politics of the past and ultimately to the post-foundational notions of community and justice. The text works with issues of reconciliation at a theoretical level that brings together insights from political theory, trauma studies, Holocaust studies, history, and literary theory. The book has the greatest relevance for the critical reconciliation theory as well as for those working on the concept of community within the continental tradition.
