Dying Death And Grief:

Understanding Dying, Death, and Bereavement Michael R. Leming, George E. Dickinson, 1990 Using a social psychological approach the new edition of this book remains solidly grounded in theory and research while also providing useful information to help individuals examine their own feelings about and cope with death and grieving The well known authors and researchers integrate stimulating personal accounts throughout the text and apply concepts to specific examples that deal with cross cultural perspectives and the practical matters of death and dying Dying, Death, and Bereavement Inge Corless, RN, PhD, FAAN, Barbara B. Germino, PhD, RN, FAAN, Mary A. Pittman, DrPH, 2003-08-29 In this updated edition the authors examine the issues of death and dying as a continuum from death education and care of the dying to grief and bereavement It is a multidisciplinary guide to the important issues surrounding dying and bereavement in today's health care and social environment Nurses social workers physicians mental health workers and allied health professionals will find this a valuable resource for working with dying individuals and their families New features to this edition are the personal stories introducing each section and a chapter on physical therapy with the dying Contributors include Hannelore Wass Charles Corr Phyllis Silverman and Derek Doyle For Further Information Please Click Here Understanding Dying, Death, and Bereavement Michael R. Leming, George E.
