Dying For It:

Dying for it Moira Buffini, 2007 Hallway dwelling Semyon is unemployed and disheartened with life When his last hope for self respect disappears Semyon decides to take his own life But word gets out and he finds himself inundated with sympathetic visitors begging him to die on their behalf Suddenly he is an important man and on the night of his proposed suicide events spiral out of control Moira Buffini has freely adapted Nikolai Erdman s celebrated satirical comedy The suicide banned by Stalin before a single performance Back cover

The Sophiology of Death Sergius Bulgakov, 2021-07-30 What will be the final destiny of the human race at God s eschatological judgment Will all be saved or only a few How does Christian eschatology impact Christian political action in the here and now And what is the destiny of each individual facing the prospect of earthly death In these essays Russian Orthodox theologian Sergius Bulgakov 1871 1944 brings the resources of Scripture and tradition to bear on these vital questions arguing for the magnificent final restoration of all creatures to union with God in a universal salvation worthy of the infinite scope of Christ s redemption Bulgakov also provides insight into how Christians can strive to bring God s kingdom to earth in anticipation of the peace and justice of the heavenly Jerusalem The reader will also find in these pages profound theological reflections on the nature of human death and Christ s accompaniment of all humans in their dying based on Bulgakov s own near death experience Together these essays shed new light on eschatology in all its facets personal political and universal

The Thought of Death and the Memory of War Marc Crépon, 2013-10-01 War lays bare death and our relation to it And in the wars or more precisely the memories of war of the twentieth century images of the deaths of countless faceless or nameless others eclipse the singularity of each victim s death as well as the end of the world as such that each death signifies Marc Crépon s The Thought of Death and the Memory of War is a call to resist such images in which death is no longer actual death since it happens to anonymous others and to seek instead a world in which mourning the other whose mortality we always already share points us toward a cosmopolitics Crépon pursues this path toward a cosmopolitics of mourning through readings of works by Freud Heidegger Sartre Patocka Levinas Derrida and Ricœur and others The movement among these writers Crépon shows marks a way through and against twentieth century interpretation to argue that no war genocide or neglect of people is possible without suspending how one relates to the death of another human being A history of a critical strain in contemporary thought this book is as Rodolphe Gasché says in the Foreword a profound meditation on what constitutes evil and a rigorous and illuminating reflection on death community and world The translation of this work received financial support from the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs

The Covenant of Life Opened Samuel Rutherford, 2005-09-06 How does God save sinners This fundamental question is of the highest importance for every human being that has ever lived The answer is given in the Bible God is a covenant keeping God who saves sinners through the work of Jesus Christ the Mediator of the Covenant of Grace With keen insight Samuel Rutherford unfolds the manner in which God save sinners seen through the three theological and biblically centered covenants found in the Bible the Covenant of Life the Covenant of Grace and the Covenant of Redemption This work is one of the most significant of Rutherford s treatments of the biblical covenants containing some of Rutherford s most mature thoughts This is not a scan or facsimile has been updated in modern English for easy reading and has an active table of contents for electronic versions Cold Fusion Paulette Burden,2000-05 This book is an intimate memoir of a very vivid set of experiences in the author s life Fascinated by a distant event she becomes so drawn into it she loses her mind in the eyes of the world Yet to her it is a profoundly enlightening and moving experience which instead of fading only grows Life imitates art which imitates life and back again What really is the nature of our consciousness and what are its possibilities Do we have any idea The Expository Times ,1894 North Carolina Reports North Carolina.
