Dylemy Ukrainskoho Fausta:

Ukrainian Intelligentsia in Post-Soviet Lviv Eleonora Narvselius, 2012-04-05 Intelligentsia assumes the right to speak in the name of the entire nation and to extrapolate its own tastes values and choices to it Therefore intelligentsia's voices have been in many ways decisive in the discussions about Ukrainian national identity which gained momentum in the post Soviet Ukrainian society The historical and cultural cityscape of Lviv is an especially apt site for investigation of the nexus intelligentsia nation not only in the Ukrainian but in the East Central European context This borderline city while not being a remarkable industrial administrative or political centre has acquired the reputation of a site of unique cultural production and a principal center of the Ukrainian nationalist movement throughout the twentieth century Here the popular conceptions of intelligentsia have been elaborated at the intersection of various cultural historical and political traditions This study addresses Ukrainian speaking intelligentsia and intellectuals in Lviv both as a discursive phenomenon and as the social category of cultural producers who in the new circumstances both articulate the nation and are articulated by it

Youth and Social Change in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union Charles Walker, Svetlana Stephenson, 2013-09-13 Two decades have now passed since the revolutions of 1989 swept through Eastern Europe and precipitated the collapse of state socialism across the region engendering a period of massive social economic and political transformation This book explores the ways in which young people growing up in post socialist Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union negotiate a range of identities and transitions in their personal lives against a backdrop of thoroughgoing transformation in their societies Drawing upon original empirical research in a range of countries the book's contributors explore the various freedoms and insecurities that have accompanied neo liberal transformation in post socialist countries in spheres as diverse as consumption migration political participation volunteering employment and family formation and examine the ways in which they have begun to re shape different aspects of young people's lives In addition while social change is a central theme of the issue all of the chapters in the collection indicate that the new opportunities and risks faced by young people continue both to underpin and to be shaped by familiar social and spatial divisions not only within and between the countries addressed but also between East and West This book was originally published as a special issue of Journal of Youth Studies

Naturalization Policies, Education and Citizenship D. Kiwan, 2013-06-24 This book examines constructions of national citizenship in the context of perceived internal division including devolution multiculturalism ethno religious conflict post conflict and refugees drawing on a wide range of countries such as Belgium Denmark France Germany the UK Ukraine Canada and Palestinians in Lebanon

Ukraine vs Russia Olexander Hryb, 2021-07-23 Nationalism national identity and ethnicity are complex social phenomena worldwide and especially so in post Soviet Ukraine This monograph explores the causes and conditions of post communist nationalist revivals focusing on the re emergence of Cossack movements in Russia and Ukraine since the late 1980s The study explores how different theories of nationalist movements underpinned different national policies and ultimately different socially constructed realities that led to the armed conflict between Russia and Ukraine Journal of Ukrainian Studies ,2003

Anamorphotic Texts and Reconfigured Visions Maryna Romanets,2007 In Anamorphotic Texts Maryna Romanets turns a discriminating lens on a still liminal Ukrainian cultural space and through its relation to the experiences of one of the earliest decolonized nations Ireland puts it on the discursive postcolonial map thereby destabilizing the paradigm of homogeneous Eurocentricity adopted by much postcolonial critique Bringing together two peripheral European literatures Romanets uses Irish and Ukrainian histories as a shared point of reference charting an essentially untouched area of comparative typology in postcolonial cultural politics Returning to the chiaroscuro terrain of respective nineteenth century Revivalist movements she projects their volatile energies onto contemporary struggles of the two cultures to represent their occluded traumatic pasts and ever evasive presents In five linked essays Romanets explores in their sociocultural contexts the works of Kostenko N Dhomhnaill Zabuzhko Pokalchuk Vynnychuk Poderviansky Longley Heaney Murphy Carson Montague Banville and Izdryk She examines the ways these authors evoke the signficatory powers of their traditions to forge imaginary ones interrogate the boundaries and slippages among personal national social gendered and historical disjunctions and make every history open to revision and contestation Drawing on postcolonial intertextual representation and gender theories Anamorphotic Texts reveals the mechanisms of conversion whereby Ukrainian and Irish writers by engaging in epistemic dialogues with their own traditions colonial discourses and multicultural influxes devise political strategies of empowerment and enunciation Osteuropa ,2003
