Changing Landscape of Education T. Premalatha, K. Arunkumar, S. Nithya, The book Changing Landscape of Education is a comprehensive collection of current research and perspectives on the significant impact of artificial intelligence, digital literacy, and creative teaching methods on education. The book consists of 42 chapters written by renowned professors, scholars, and educators. These chapters cover a broad range of subjects, including the incorporation of artificial intelligence in educational settings, the development of digital literacy, and the obstacles and advantages of inclusive education in the digital era. This book explores the complex aspects of contemporary teaching approaches, the significant impact of MOOCs, and the crucial role of open educational materials. It includes contributions that examine topics such as the future of academic leadership, the use of gamification in assessment, and the crucial role of social-emotional learning. This book is an indispensable resource for educators, policymakers, and researchers who are working to understand and influence the future of education in the 21st century. Make: Volume 88

Dale Dougherty, 2024-01-31 Paper printers can print in color, why not 3D printers? Well, now they can. New multicolor and multi-material 3D printers are more approachable than ever, and they're good. In this issue of Make, we go in depth with the latest multi-filament 3D printing systems from Bambu Labs, Prusa Research, and others to show you how to get the best color 3D prints. But even though you can print multicolor pieces, should you? From waste towers to orientation issues, we walk you through the pros and cons of printing all in one color versus assembling separate color parts. Then, get the download on next-level resin printing that can produce pieces in literal seconds. Next, take a look at HueForge, a surprising technique for 3D printing full-color reliefs that look like digital paintings. And can AI make ready-to-print 3D objects? The answer is kind of. Plus 21 projects for you to make, including: Craft a cuddly companion robot that moves and lights up through sight and touch. Make a DIY mobility walker for cheap.
