Family Legal Vulnerability Laura E. Enriquez,Cecilia Ayón,Jennifer R. Nájera,Annie Ro,Zulema Valdez,2026-01-27 How college students in mixed status families are affected by immigration policies Focusing on Latinx students attending the University of California Family Legal Vulnerability exposes how their educational experiences and social mobility are shaped not only by their own immigration status but also by their family members undocumented immigration status The authors introduce the concept of family legal vulnerability as a novel framework that captures how undocumented and mixed status immigrant families collectively experience deportability economic insecurity discrimination social exclusion and legal uncertainty The authors show how the adverse effects of family legal vulnerability are similar for both college students who are undocumented and U S citizens with undocumented parents Cascading consequences emerge among immigration impacted students as family legal vulnerability

compromises their mental and emotional health academic success and political engagement The book also illustrates how students demonstrate agency as they negotiate family legal vulnerability seeking out ways to bolster their individual and collective flourishing Ultimately this book calls on scholars policy makers and university administrators to account for family legal vulnerability when considering how immigration policies undermine students college experiences and to identify actionable practices to advance greater equity and inclusion
