It examines contemporary economic and social transformations in India by focusing on how new technologies and policies are shaping urban work practices and patterns. The book emphasizes inclusive and equitable practices that consider the needs of the formal and informal sector workforce as essential to India's urban development. Drawing on cross-disciplinary frameworks, it examines key issues related to work trends in the Indian urban economy and its digital landscapes including Industry 4.0 and technology labour nexus, smart cities and innovation, urbanism and consumerism, workplace transitions such as service industry and remote work, digital divide, skill development initiatives and the impact of socio-economic inequalities and disruptions. The authors provide perspectives on the digital future of urban work in India and other emerging economies in the post COVID-19 phase and underscore the importance of enacting balanced policies, remodelling institutions and equipping the labour force for adapting to new demands related to future employability and investments. This book will interest students, teachers and researchers of urban studies, urban sociology, sociology of work, labour studies, human and urban geography, economic geography, urban economics, development studies, urban development and planning, public policy, regional planning, politics of urban development, social and cultural change, urban sustainability, environmental studies, management studies, South Asian Studies and Global South studies. It will also be useful to policymakers, non-governmental organizations, activists and those interested in India and the future of the global economy. Interdisciplinary Research in Engineering: Steps towards Breakthrough Innovation for Sustainable Development Aurel Vlaicu, Stelian Brad, 2013-06-27 Selected peer-reviewed papers from the Interdisciplinary Research in Engineering Steps towards Breakthrough Innovation for Sustainable Development INTERIN 2013 25 February 1 March 2013 Cluj Napoca Romania IEEE/ACM/IFIP International Conference on Hardware/Software Codesign & System Synthesis, 2005 Federal Personnel Guide, 2009 Production & Inventory Management Review & APICS News, 1987 Production Management Methods Cláudio Walter, Francisco José Kliemann, José Palazzo Moreira Oliveira, 1994 National borders are becoming increasingly open for goods and ideas and this is creating challenges both for the industrialized countries and for the developing world. Most countries wish to keep and to grow their industries and this requires the design and operation of very complex systems in such a way as to maximize jobs, profits and the quality of life in general under quite different conditions. An improved understanding of the distinct operations variable trade-offs indeed quite individual conceptual models of manufacturing systems in different regions is therefore necessitated. This publication addresses various aspects involved in the achievement of the aim. It presents new developments in production management methods, tools for the evaluation of them and assessments of the adequacy of different production management methods applied to various classes of production systems. Test cases and application statistics are analysed thereby affording a comprehensive picture of the present situation and a vision for enhanced future development. Data Processing Digest
