Can't Live Without You? Helen E Sutherland, 2021-03-29 Is Your Dog Suffering From Separation Anxiety 10 Simple Ways To Train Your Puppy And Your Dog To Overcome His Fear of Being Home Alone Does your dog jump all over you when you return home or mess up the house when you are out Chew your furniture or your shoes Do you hate leaving home because your dog looks so sad when you leave Have your neighbors told you that your dog barks when you are not home Do you feel guilty that you are a bad parent to your dog every day every time you leave the house All of the above applied to me and it happened twice with the same dog just in a different way Once when he was younger and then again after lockdown in 2021 My little boy had separation anxiety and it was a horrible feeling I hated it I felt so responsible for it but I had to go out I had to go to work To be honest I was also embarrassed At first I didn't even know It was a neighbor that had to tell me about the howling I hated leaving the house and leaving my dogs behind I worried all the time if they were okay I worried about what they were doing when I was out what noise they might be making and I was always keen to get home and excited to get back to them but worried about what I might face After trying many different ways and finding out as much as I could I

realised that there were lots of things that might cause the anxiety and that I was doing quite a bit wrong Some of the things you are going to learn about in this book include What causes separation anxietyHow to identify separation anxietyPreparing the room for separation Leaving and ReturningExercise off Leash and Recall Games You Can PlayOne of the biggest reasons that dogs today are put up for adoption is due to separation anxiety where the owners can no longer cope It is for this reason that I decided to write everything down that I have learned and that I have used in my own life and with others If we can teach our dogs as early as we can to get used to us leaving to see it as just a part of the normal routine then these dogs will be able to remain with their loving owners all their life For those of us with slightly older dogs separation anxiety may come as an unwelcome surprise But it is possible to find a way to deal with it You will be surprised at the number of small things that might be making your dog feel this way and just how easy some of the solutions might be Of course some for of separation anxiety will be more severe and your dog might need more help but if you have not tried these methods before they are well worth trying If you want to help your dog overcome his fear scroll up and click the Add to Cart button
