Doing Time In The Pulpit The Relationship Between Narrative And Preaching:

Doing Time in the Pulpit Eugene L. Lowry, 1985 The Witness of Preaching, Second Edition Thomas G.

Long, 2005-10-20 This thorough and detailed revision of The Witness of Preaching is even clearer and more helpful than the first edition Long has updated the language expanded the key chapter on biblical exegesis and included more examples of sermon forms illustrations and conclusions He continues to critically engage the best thinkers in the field of homiletics bringing into the conversation both important new voices and the latest works of those who appeared in the first edition In addition he addresses some of the new forces at work such as the use of video clips and PowerPoint presentations in sermons

The Witness of Preaching Thomas G. Long, 2005-01-01 This thorough revision of this classic text is even clearer and more helpful than the first edition Long has updated the language expanded the key chapter on biblical exegesis and has included more examples of sermon forms illustrations and conclusions A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards JR., 2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church's ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 contains Edwards's magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching's development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time Origen Chrysostom Augustine Bernard Aquinas Luther Calvin Wesley Edwards Rauschenbusch Barth all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew Volume 2 available separately as 9781501833786 contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history Ecumenical in scope fair minded in presentation appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop deliver and listen to a sermon A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years says

Ann K Riggs who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission Author Edwards former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary is co moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches we all participate in this field says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65 Winter 2004 2005 published by the National Council of Churches A History of Preaching Otis Carl Edwards, 2004 Accompanying CD ROM contains the full text of volume one and two Volume two contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries Each chapter in volume two is geared to its companion chapter in volume one's narrative history Preaching Jesus Charles L. Campbell, 2006-09-01 The post liberal cultural linguistic theology of the Yale School has been one of the most important theological developments in the United States during the latter twentieth century In this unique book which combines theological analysis and homiletical reflection Charles Campbell examines post liberal theology as it is embodied in the work of Hans Frei and develops the implications of this theological position for the theory and practice of preaching Arguing that the trouble with homiletics today is fundamentally theological Campbell offers Frei's theological position as a means for enriching the Christian pulpit and renewing the church Sharing the Word Lucy Atkinson Rose, 1997-01-01 Lucy Atkinson Rose proposes a nonhierarchical communal relationship between pastor and congregation that questions traditional assumptions of preaching and offers insight from those on the margin and those outside the field of homiletics She invites preachers to practice a style of conversational preaching rooted in connectedness and a sense of mutuality between preacher and worshipers What's the Shape of Narrative Preaching? Mike Graves, 2012 They are there after an urgent need a moment of desperation Like Ellen Cardwell's telling of a highway angel who helped Ellen and her husband resume their trip after car trouble on California's desolate Highway 1 Or Delores Topliff's memory from her childhood when on the brink of starvation an angel on a bicycle dropped off bags of groceries These stories will challenge and reward your faith in God a God Who tells us to entertain strangers and possibly Heavenly Company Contained within this book is an exclusive collection of real life encounters with God's angels and mysterious helpful strangers Best selling author Cecil Murphey coauthor of 90 Minutes in Heaven and more than one hundred other books and his cowriter Twila Belk masterfully bring together brand new reports from all over the world that share one thing in common the way in which God uses messengers to touch our lives Filled with hundreds of pages of stories that will excite your spirit and touch your heart you'll travel from Africa to Texas to Russia and back again Curl up with this powerful book and read amazing true accounts of individuals who have encountered angels both seen and unseen Preaching with a Cupped Ear Jeffrey Francis Bullock, 1999 For the last twenty five years practitioners of what has come to be known as the New Homiletic have attempted to discover a way through the crisis of preaching to new effectiveness However New Homileticians continue to locate their efforts in a representational view of language This study analyzes and evaluates current views of language and preaching and then juxtaposes them with views of language and communication articulated by the contemporary German philosopher Hans Georg Gadamer This revised homiletic moves beyond constraints imposed by contemporary homiletical theory s language commitments to a unique appropriation of conversation as a means of facilitating an experience Erfahrung with the word Freedom in the Pulpit Barbara Bate,1996 This resource encourages discussion among preaching colleagues worship teams and lay speakers focusing on spiritual growth and professional skills essential to communicators in worship Variety in Biblical Preaching Harold Freeman,1987 Using Illustrations to Preach with Power Bryan Chapell,1993 Illustrations are integral to powerful biblical preaching and this work demonstrates why It also shares how to find and integrate illustrations effectively without compromising the Bible s message American Journal of Theology & Philosophy ,1986 Culture Shift David W.
