Doldrum Bay:

Doldrum Bay Hilary Fannin, 2003 A new play by one of Ireland's most astute young writers This is the problem with love it is so fucking unpalatable Every disease I have is caused by love loving other people too much Bald injured flawed people you love them and crucify yourself Francis is so busy promoting his new novel that he hasn't written it yet while his partner Magda is too busy mourning the death of her dad to notice that Francis is wandering off with the next model sensation Java Their friend Chick has been asked to come up with a sexy shout line for the latest recruitment drive by the Christian brothers while his brother who is also a monk has been found absconding in an Easter bunny outfit in the local mall Hilary Fannin's new play is a soul searching satire on the incongruous lives of twenty somethings in contemporary Dublin Doldrum Bay is published to tie in with the Abbey Theatre production at the Peacock in May 2003

Walking in Ireland Christopher Somerville, 2011-03-03 Walking has never been a more popular pastime and nowhere is more beautiful for walkers to explore than Ireland In this beautifully written and superbly researched guide Christopher Somerville draws on his very popular column for the Irish Independent to present 50 of the very best walks in Ireland from the Nephin Beg Mountains in Mayo to Dingle Way in Kerry Practical instructions for the walks are married with evocative and informative passages on the history flora and fauna culture and topography of the land Whether it's exploring the Burren in its floral glory or seeing the Walls of Derry or even sitting at home in your armchair planning your next walk this book will prove popular with ramblers holiday makers and anyone who loves the Irish landscape

The Dublin Region Myles Wright, 1967

Masculinities and the Contemporary Irish Theatre B. Singleton, 2010-11-24 Irish theatre and its histories appear to be dominated by men and their actions This book's socially and culturally contextualized analysis of performance over the last two decades however reveals masculinities that are anything but hegemonic played out in theatres and other arenas of performance all over Ireland

Plays and Controversies Ben Barnes, 2008 In diaries covering the period of his artistic directorship of the Abbey Ben Barnes offers a frank honest and probing account of a much commented upon and controversial period in the history of the national theatre These diaries also provide fascinating personal insights into the day to day pressures joys and frustrations of running one of Ireland's most iconic institutions For over a century now the Abbey has conducted its love hate relationship with the Irish public and the wider international audience and in Plays and Controversies Ben Barnes illuminates his own eventful chapter in that absorbing story the impact of a fascinating still remembered chapter in the story of the Abbey Theatre related at first hand with a fire and a vigorous sense of commitment comparable to that of the founding fathers Christopher FitzSimons Barnes addresses a moment in Irish cultural history which stands as a many sided cautionary tale It is the tale of an embattled man a courageous man who dares to borrow Yeats's title because he found himself for a time in similar circumstances running the national theatre though in altogether different conditions Chris Murray We believe that this book is an important historical record of a recent tumultuous period in relation to the Abbey Theatre and anticipate that it will make a worthwhile contribution to lively cultural debate on theatre history and politics BOOK JACKET The Dublin Civic Survey Dublin Civic Survey Committee, Horace T. Tóibín, 2004 Toibin's drama brilliantly re-enacts and evokes the personalities and workings of the Abbey Theatre in 1926. Lady Gregory, Yeats and O'Casey defend their daring play against the stifling mores of the day and the rule of the rabble and the widows of the 1916 leaders. It is a timely reminder of the perennial conflict between the demands of art and of politics in Irish cultural life. As Sean O'Casey addresses the ghost of Lady Gregory he recalls Yeats' Monday evening gatherings and early visits to Coole Park and the staging rehearsal and enacting of The Plough and the Stars itself commissioned for the tenth anniversary of the 1916 Rising. This inner drama has walk-on parts for the principals: Abbey manager Lennox Robinson, directors WB and Mrs Yeats, government-appointed board member George O'Brien, actors Shelagh Delaney, Ria Mooney, Miss Crowe and McCormack and street demagogues Hannah Sheehy Skeffington, Mrs Tom Pearse and Maud Gonne protesting the mockery of martyrs.

Unravelling the Ribbon Mary Kelly, Maureen White, 2007 Rose is thirty-four and lives on a farm with her husband and two children. She worries she may have married too young. Lola is fifty and wants to sell her home. Nobody ever calls and she has stopped opening her post. Lyndsey is eleven and her best friend has stopped sitting beside her in art class. When breast cancer touches their lives everything starts to unravel. Rose's marriage falls apart. Lola gets arrested and Lyndsey hides a cooked ham in a thorn bush. Unravelling the Ribbon by Mary Kelly and Maureen White tells the funny and touching story of these three women as they interact separately and come together in a moving and frequently hilarious tale of friendship and survival. It was premiered in Dublin and co-produced by Plan B Productions and Guna Nua.
