Dominations Powers Reflections On Libe:

People Power Howard Clark, 2009-08-20 Across the world nonviolent movements are at the forefront of resistance against repression imperial aggression and corporate abuse However it is often difficult for activists in other countries to know how best to assist such movements The contributors to People Power place nonviolent struggles in an international context where solidarity can play a crucial role Yet they also warn that good intentions are not enough solidarity has to listen to local movements Examining movements from Zimbabwe to Burma and Palestine the contributors assess various forms of solidarity arguing that a central role of solidarity is to strengthen the counter power of those resisting domination and Power, Resistance and Conflict in the Contemporary World Athina Karatzogianni, Andrew oppression Robinson, 2009-10-16 Examines the operation of network forms of organization in social resistance movements in relation to the integration of the world system the intersection of networks and the possibility of social transformation Multipolar World Mi You, 2025-01-22 This monograph takes a look at how the increasing multipolarity of our world affects art It is a diagnosis of the socio political contexts that surround art and questions what the upheavals in geopolitics economic and social policy mean for the field of art today The text is divided into four sections First the phenomenon is conceptualized and theorized This is followed by an in depth examination of the interrelationships using documenta fifteen as a case study an exhibition that can be seen as a crystallization point for current political shifts This is followed by an in depth reading of Chinese art policy which oscillates between particularist and universalist claims in order to arrive at the concluding section which opens up a horizon of thought and experimentation that helps us to come to terms with the era of multipolarity

Digital Futures between Domination and Participation Markus S. Schulz, Isabel da Costa, 2025-11-24 This volume highlights the merits of interdisciplinary research and transnational perspectives to illuminate the intricate complexity in which digital technologies are shaped by and are shaping social relations of power between domination and participation

Genteel Tradition in American Philosophy and Character and Opinion in the United States George Santayana,2009-10-27 This book brings together two seminal works by George Santayana one of the most significant philosophers of the twentieth century Character and Opinion in the United States which stands with Tocqueville's Democracy in America as one the most insightful works of American cultural criticism ever written and The Genteel Tradition in American Philosophy a landmark text of both philosophical analysis and cultural criticism An introduction by James Seaton situates Santayana in the intellectual and cultural context of his own time Four additional essays include John Lachs on the ways Santayana's understanding of the soul of America help explain the relative peace among nationalities and ethnic groups in the United States Wilfred M McClay on Santayana's life of the mind as it relates to dominant trends in American culture Roger Kimball on Santayana's most uncommon benefice common sense and James Seaton on Santayana's distinction between English liberty and fierce liberty All the essays serve to highlight the relevance of Santayana's ideas to current issues in American culture including education immigration and civil rights Human Rights Internet Newsletter ,1979 Radical Democracy and the Internet Lincoln Dahlberg, Eugenia Siapera, 2007-05-22 In this systematic and mutual interrogation of radical democratic theory and Internet practice contributors examine a range of democratic theories in relation to online communication and explore how such communication may advance democracy beyond what is conceptualized and practised within present liberal capitalist political contexts The New Sociology of the Health Service Jonathan Gabe, Michael Calnan, 2009-03-09 The New Sociology of the Health Service provides a vital new sociological framework for analysing health policy and health care covering a broad range of key contemporary health services issues It will be an important read for all students and researchers of medical sociology and health policy Cyberchiefs Mathieu O'Neil, 2009-04-15 Leading author presents a critical introduction to the world bank ideal for students Global Ideas Barbara Czarniawska-Joerges, Guje Sevón, 2005 Attempts to explain how it is possible that although the same idea travels around the globe at a high speed local realities are still very different This book shows what is travelling and how it moves between countries and disciplines Its frame of reference consists of a combination of organization theory institutionalism and sociology Classroom Susanmarie Harrington, Rebecca Rickly, Michael Day, 2000 This book is designed for writing teachers who teach in online environments primarily networked computer labs and the Internet and for writing teachers who would like to teach in such spaces All the contributors write from their own teaching research or administrative experience and all tell their stories in a rich theoretical context that will allow readers to see the relationship between theory context and practice The chapters serve as descriptive guides to new teaching practices to help the reader find ways to use online activities to further their own pedagogical goals within their own specific contexts Undermining Development Sarah Michael, 2004 Why haven t development programs sponsored by local NGOs been more effective in Africa In this careful study of NGOs in three African countries Zimbabwe Tanzania and Senegal Sarah Michael exposes reasons why successful well run and powerful development programs are infrequent in Africa Michael s argument focuses on issues of power NGOs in Africa do not command the financial resources employ the professional staff or have the same access to donors that NGOs in other parts of the world enjoy Main topics covered in this probing book include What does a powerful NGO look like How does power affect sustainable development What circumstances prevent local NGOs in Africa from wielding power How can African NGOs remedy their absence of power What relationship with donors and international NGOs should be cultivated This book will interest readers concerned with issues pertaining to the organization mission and implementation of development NGOs in The Out for Reflection, 2005 Africa and beyond Online Community Peter Andrew Levy, 1997 Asian Journal of Social Science ,2005 Current Index to Journals in Education ,2001 Deep Search Konrad Becker, Felix Stalder, 2009 Deep Search collects 13 texts which investigate the social and political dimensions of how we navigate the deep seas of knowledge What do we win and what do we lose when we move from an analogue to a digital information order How is computer readable significance produced how is meaning involved in machine communication. Where is the potential of having access to such vast amounts of information What are the dangers of our reliance on search engines and are there any approaches that do not follow the currently dominating paradigm of Google This volume answers these questions of culture context and classification regarding information systems that should not be ignored Internet on the Holocaust and Cultural Anthropology Conrad Phillip Kottak, 2000 Webbing Cyberfeminist Practice Kristine Blair, Radhika Gajjala, Christine Tulley, 2009 This is the first book collection to devote itself exclusively to issues related to women's lives in a culture of technology As such it is a key addition to feminist new media scholarship in computers and composition The book holds special appeal as the editors have put into conversation chapters of authors from diverse disciplines The value that is placed on cross disciplinary work is further demonstrated in the mix of theoretical pedagogical and rhetorical research that enriches the book in its entirety To explore the variety of cyberfeminist webs the collection has been organized around three themes Chapters in Forming Virtual Kinships examine cyberfeminist practices that do not neatly operate in standard academic communities such as classrooms or cultural centers instead foregrounding the extent to which female communities evolve around aspects of women s daily lives as mothers consumers and workers Chapters in Redrawing Academic Boundaries offer a glimpse of practice within more defined pedagogical spaces providing a sense of the ways in which classroom and community network boundaries are often blurred and disrupted Last the text moves to explore how cyberfeminist webs both on the beyond the borders of standard spaces are developed using a variety of theoretical standpoints
