Donkey Detectives Lavinia Riker Davis, 1955 Plurals and Events Barry Schein, 1993 Barry Schein proposes combining a second order treatment of plurals with Donald Davidson's suggestion that there are positions for reference to events in ordinary predicates in order to account for several of the more puzzling features of plurals without invoking plural objects with its attendant metaphysics and also provide an absolute truth theoretic characterization of the semantics of sentences with plurals in them How do we make sense of sentences with plural noun phrases in them In Plurals and Events Barry Schein proposes combining a second order treatment of plurals with Donald Davidson's suggestion that there are positions for reference to events in ordinary predicates in order to account for several of the more puzzling features of plurals without invoking plural objects with its attendant metaphysics and also provide an absolute truth theoretic characterization of the semantics of sentences with plurals in them Schein's highly original argument should have significant impact on how natural language semantics is done with repercussions for philosophy and logic The book opens with foundational arguments that the logical language should have four major features reduction to singular predication via a Davidsonian logical form mereology of events a logical syntax that allows the constituents of a Davidsonian analysis to be predicated of distinct events and separated from one another by other logical elements and descriptive anaphors that cross refer to the events described by antecedent clauses A semantics for plurality and quantification is developed in the remaining chapters which address some of the empirical and formal questions raised by the variety of interpretations in which plurals and quantifiers participate British Mysteries - Boxed Set (350+ Detective Novels, Thrillers & True Crime Stories)

Old Car Detective Bill Sherk, 2011-03-18

In this hilarious collection of old car stories, Canada's very own Old Car Detective Bill Sherk presents 80 of his favourite stories from all 10 provinces, spanning the years from 1925 to 1965. In this book, you will meet the man in New Brunswick who chopped the top off his 1927 Whippet sedan in honour of the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II; the young fellow from Kingston, Ontario, who thought his 1937 Ford coach looked better with all four fenders taken off; the owner of a 1947 Hudson that burned so much oil he had to wear a snorkel mask while driving it; the father who borrowed his son's hot-rodded 53 Monarch, built only in Canada, and got pulled over by the police for street racing; and the grandmother who moved from England to Canada and drove her Morris Minor on the wrong side of the road. Behind every old car, there's a story waiting to be told, all the way from your grandparents' Model T Ford to the Mustang you drove in high school. All the stories and photographs in this book are in chronological order, from 1925 to 1965, giving you a 40-year journey through Canada's rich automotive heritage and brought to life by the people who owned and drove the cars of yesteryear, and some still do.
