Dubious Heritage:

A Dubious Heritage Louis K. Dupré, 1977 In this collection of essays written over the past ten years Professor Dupre reflects his singular concern with the impact of Kant's critique upon the study of religion Dupre see in Kant the first methodic effort to formulate and at the same time to overcome the malaise from which the religious consciousness had suffered ever since art science philosophy and morality had become independent of faith The Origins of the Second Temple Diana Vikander Edelman, 2014-12-05 Darius I King of Persia claims to have accomplished many deeds in the early years of his reign but was one of them the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem The editor who added the date to the books of Haggai and Zechariah thought so and the author of Ezra 1 6 then relied on his dates when writing his account of the rebuilding process The genealogical information contained in the book of Nehemiah however suggests otherwise it indicates that Zerubbabel and Nehemiah were either contemporaries or a generation apart in age not some 65 years apart Thus either Zerubabbel and the temple rebuilding needs to be moved to the reign of Artaxerxes I or Nehemiah and the rebuilding of the city walls needs to be moved to the reign of Darius I In this ground breaking volume the argument is made that the temple was built during the reign of Artaxerxes I The editor of Haggai and Zechariah mistakenly set the event under Darius I because he was influenced by both a desire to show the fulfillment of inherited prophecy and by Darius widely circulated autobiography of his rise to power In light of the settlement patterns in Yehud during the Persian period it is proposed that Artaxerxes I instituted a master plan to incorporate Yehud into the Persian road postal and military systems The rebuilding of the temple was a minor part of the larger plan that provided soldiers stationed in the fortress in Jerusalem and civilians living in the new provincial seat with a place to worship their native god while also providing a place to store taxes and monies collected on behalf of the Persian administration Symbols of Transcendence Paul J. Levesque, 1997 Volume 22 in the LTPM series offers a synchronic investigation of the thought of Christian philosopher Louis Dupre Working from a careful reading of Dupre's vast body of writings Paul Levesque demonstrates that in Dupre's work all religious expression insofar as it has a transcendent reference is intrinsically symbolic In the course of his study Levesque discusses the general necessity of employing symbols for religious expression investigates in depth Dupre's symbol theory and applies it to the religious symbols of ritual sacraments and religious art examines the modern inability to fully form religious symbols and explores Dupre s particular call to recover the mystical experience in personal life The Cambridge Modern History, 1918

The Classical Heritage of the Middle Ages Henry Osborn Taylor,1901 with the The Classical Heritage of the Middle Ages Henry Osborn Taylor (historien).),1911 Heritage Knowledge in the Curriculum Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2018-04-27 Moving beyond the content integration approach of multicultural education this text powerfully advocates for the importance of curriculum built upon authentic knowledge construction informed by the Black intellectual tradition and an African episteme By retrieving examining and reconnecting the continuity of African Diasporan heritage with school knowledge this volume aims to repair the rupture that has silenced this cultural memory in standard historiography in general and in PK 12 curriculum content and pedagogy in particular This ethically informed curriculum approach not only allows students of African ancestry to understand where they fit in the world but also makes the accomplishments and teachings of our collective ancestors available for the benefit of all King and Swartz provide readers with a process for making overt and explicit the values actions thoughts and behaviors reflected in an African episteme that serves as the foundation for African Diasporan sociohistorical phenomenon events With such knowledge teachers can conceptualize curriculum and shape instruction that locates people in all cultures as subjects with agency whose actions embody their Design and Heritage Grace Lees-Maffei, Rebecca Houze, 2021-12-29 Design and Heritage ongoing cultural legacy provides the first extended study of heritage from the point of view of design history Exploring the material objects and spaces that contribute to our experience of heritage the volume also examines the processes and practices that shape them Bringing together 18 case studies written by authors from the United States the United Kingdom Canada Brazil Norway India South Africa Australia and New Zealand the book questions how design functions to produce heritage Including provocative case studies of objects that reinterpret visual symbols of cultural identity and buildings and monuments that evoke feelings of national pride and historical memory as well as landscapes embedded with trauma contributors consider how we can work to develop adequate shared conceptual models of heritage and apply them to design and its histories Exploring the distinction between tangible and intangible heritages the chapters consider what these categories mean for design history and heritage Finally the book questions whether it might be possible to promote a truly equitable understanding of heritage that illuminates the social cultural and economic roles of design Design and Heritage demonstrates that design historical methods of inquiry contribute significantly to critical heritage studies Academics researchers and students engaged in the study of heritage design history material culture folklore art history architectural history and social and cultural history will find much to interest them within the pages of the book America's Race Heritage Clinton Stoddard Burr,1922 Harry Potter and the Classical World Richard A. Spencer, 2015-07-11 J K Rowling has drawn deeply from classical sources to inform and color her Harry Potter novels with allusions ranging from the obvious to the obscure Fluffy the vicious three headed dog in Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone is clearly a repackaging of Cerberus the hellhound of Greek and Roman mythology But the significance of Rowling's quotation from Aeschylus at the front of Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows is a matter of speculation Her use of classical material is often presented with irony and humor This extensive analysis of the Harry Potter series examines Rowling's wide range of allusion to classical characters and themes and her varied use of classical languages Chapters discuss Harry and Narcissus Dumbledore's many classical predecessors Lord Voldemort's likeness to mythical figures and magic in Harry Potter and classical antiquity among many topics Ruin Memories Bjørnar Olsen, Póra Pétursdóttir, 2014-04-24 Since the nineteenth century mass production consumerism and cycles of material replacement have accelerated increasingly larger amounts of things are increasingly victimized rapidly and made redundant At the same time processes of destruction have immensely intensified although largely overlooked when compared to the research and social significance devoted to consumption and production The outcome is a ruin landscape of derelict factories closed shopping malls overgrown bunkers and redundant mining towns a ghostly world of decaying modern debris normally omitted from academic concerns and conventional histories The archaeology of the recent or contemporary past has grown fast during the last decade This development has been concurrent with a broader popular artistic and scholarly interest in modern ruins in general Ruin Memories explores how the ruins of modernity are conceived and assigned cultural value in contemporary academic and public discourses reassesses the cultural and historical value of modern ruins and suggests possible means for reaffirming their cultural and historic significance Crucial for this reassessment is a concern with decay and ruination and with the role things play in expressing the neglected unsuccessful and ineffable Abandonment and ruination is usually understood negatively through the tropes of loss and deprivation things are degraded and humiliated while the information knowledge and memory embedded in them become lost along the way Without even ignoring its many negative and traumatizing aspects a main question addressed in this book is whether ruination also can be seen as an act of disclosure If ruination disturbs the routinized and ready to hand to what extent can it also be seen as a recovery of memory as exposing meanings and presences that perhaps are only possible to grasp at second hand when no longer immersed in their withdrawn and useful reality Anybody interested in the archaeology of the contemporary past will find Ruin Memories an essential guide to the very latest theoretical research in this emerging field of archaeological thought An Outline History of China: From the Manchu conquest to the recognition of the republic, A.D. 1913 Herbert Henry An Outline History of China Herbert Henry Gowen, 1917 Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George Gowen, 1913 William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman Conant, Montgomery Schuyler, John Foord, Richard Harding Davis, Carl Schurz, Henry Loomis Nelson, John Kendrick Bangs, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Norman Hapgood, 1879 ПППП .1910 American Fertilizer ,1922 Christian Spirituality and the Culture of Modernity Peter J. Casarella, George Peter Schner, 1998 This volume celebrates the thought of Louis Dupre a man who has assayed our present situation by plumbing the spiritual foundations of our modern cultural crisis This introduction to his thought is a valuable resource for rethinking our categories Europe SInce Waterloo William Stearns Davis, 1926 Farm Chemicals ,1922

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him.
