The Politics of Authenticity in Presidential Campaigns, 1976-2008

Erica J. Seifert, 2014-01-10 Authenticity the dominant cultural value of the baby boom generation became central to presidential campaigns in the late 20th century Beginning in 1976 Americans elected six presidents whose campaigns represented evolving standards of authenticity Interacting with the media and their publics these successful presidential candidates structured their campaigns around projecting authentic images and connecting with voters as one of us In the process they rewrote the political playbook redefined presidentiality and changed the terms of the national political discourse

This book is predicated on the assumption that it is worth knowing why

Confessions of a Presidential Speechwriter

Craig R. Smith, 2014-02-01 An avid high school debater and enthusiastic student body president Craig Smith seemed destined for a life in public service from an early age As a sought after speechwriter Smith had a front row seat at some of the most important events of the twentieth century meeting with Robert Kennedy and Richard Nixon advising Governor Ronald Reagan writing for President Ford serving as a campaign manager for a major U S senator s reelection campaign and writing speeches for a contender for the Republican nomination for president Life in the volatile world of politics wasn t always easy however and as a closeted gay man Smith struggled to reconcile his private and professional lives In this revealing memoir Smith sheds light on what it takes to make it as a speechwriter in a field where the only constant is change While bouncing in and out of the academic world Smith transitions from consultantships with George H W Bush and the Republican caucus of the U S Senate to a position with Chrysler CEO Lee Iacocca When Smith returns to Washington D C as president and founder of the Freedom of Expression Foundation he becomes a leading player on First Amendment issues in the nation s capital Returning at long last to academia Smith finds happiness coming out of the closet and reaping the benefits of a dedicated and highly successful career

Presidential Elections, 1789-2008

Puckett, 2010 Hanes Walton Donald Deskins and Sherman Puckett have produced a highly impressive collection and valuable contribution to the literature on American electoral politics This work is indispensable for academic libraries political scientists historians and serious students of American government Immanuel Ness Professor Department of Political Science Brooklyn College City University of New York Massive amounts of information about presidential elections which are not readily available elsewhere Unprecedented coverage in one volume of every single American presidential election James Gimpel Professor of Government University of Maryland This is an extraordinary research endeavor the most comprehensive set of aggregate election data ever assembled Painstakingly researched this color coded volume presents data for every presidential election from 1789 to 2008 Unlike most the wide ranging narrative for this atlas identifies racial patterns in the vote Everyone who studies or is interested in presidential elections should have this impressive collection of statistical data in their libraries A visual gem for the digital age Robert Smith Professor of Political Science San Francisco State University

Presidential Elections 1789 2008 is a genuine tour de force that captures in an extremely accessible and comprehensive way the electoral geography of America's presidential elections from Washington to Obama. An invaluable addition to the library of all those interested in presidential elections and U.S. politics. Marion Orr, Frederick Lippitt Professor of Public Policy and Professor of Political Science, Brown University. This volume sets an extraordinarily high standard in scholarship, completeness, description and explanation of our political process. It has been said that all politics are local but never before has this been demonstrated with such clarity and panache using the simple method of standardized tables summarizing voting then showing state and county breakdowns of the numbers greatly strengthened by beautiful full color maps and cartograms. Every scholar of politics and democracy will benefit from the work laid out in this volume. Keith Clarke, Professor of Geography, University of California, Santa Barbara. Presidential Elections is an almanac of the popular vote in every presidential election in American history analyzed at the county level with histories of each campaign, graphs and stunning four color maps. Most Americans are familiar with the crude red state blue state maps used by commentators and campaign strategists and even for want of an alternative by many academics. In providing a higher resolution view of voting behavior, the authors of this new volume enable examination of local and regional political trends that are invisible in state level aggregations. Presidential Elections will enable scholars to more subtly analyze voting behavior, campaigns and presidential politics; commentators will use it to analyze trends and trace the historical evolution of new coalitions and voting blocs; strategists will use it to plan campaigns and mobilize constituencies. Presidential Elections will become the standard almanac on the subject, a required resource for academic and public libraries as well as for scholars, consultants and pundits nationwide. Donald R. Deskins Jr. is a political geographer and Emeritus Professor of Sociology and a former Associate Dean of the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies at the University of Michigan. Hanes Walton Jr. is Professor of Political Science at the University of Michigan. He also holds positions as Senior Research Scientist at the Center for Political Studies and as a faculty member in the Center for Afroamerican and African Studies. Sherman C. Puckett is a Ph.D. graduate of the University of Michigan in urban and regional planning. He was a mayoral appointee in the data processing department of the Coleman A. Young administration in the City of Detroit and recently retired from Wayne County government as manager of technology, geographic information systems and development of maintenance management systems.
