McClendon, 2005-01-01 This book is the first devoted to the important innovations in architecture that took place in western Europe between the death of emperor Justinian in A D 565 and the tenth century During this period of transition from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages the Early Christian basilica was transformed in both form and function Charles B McClendon draws on rich documentary evidence and archaeological data to show that the buildings of these three centuries studied in isolation but rarely together set substantial precedents for the future of medieval architecture He looks at buildings of the so called Dark Ages monuments that reflected a new assimilation of seemingly antithetical barbarian and classical attitudes toward architecture and its decoration and at the grand and innovative architecture of the Carolingian Empire The great Romanesque and Gothic churches of subsequent centuries owe far more to the architectural achievements of the Early Middle Ages than has generally been recognized the author argues Dumbarton Oaks Papers Dumbarton Oaks,1946 Byzantine Art Robin Cormack,2018 A beautifully illustrated new edition of the best single volume guide to Byzantine art providing an introduction to the whole period and range of styles The Calendar and Hunting Mosaics of the Villa of the Falconer in Argos Gunilla Åkerström-Hougen,1974
