Durer In The Window Reflexions On Art:

Dürer in the Window Barbara Guest, 2003 Cultural Writing Poetry Art DÜRER IN THE WINDOW offers a selection of Guest's work on art written between the 1950s and 2000. It features the early art reviews, collaborations, longer essays, and of course poetry. Each component highlights her artistic sensibility: subtle and discrete, full of elegance with an exacting eye. Her work demonstrates the ability of one poet to navigate between the realms of two artistic worlds and maintain an active existence in both. DÜRER IN THE WINDOW is a showcase of Barbara Guest's writing and a winning example of collaboration itself. Africa Wayne, editor.

Meditations Barbara Guest, 2025-05-06. Meditations gathers together in one volume for the first time an extensive collection of the prose work of Barbara Guest, 1920-2006, one of the major voices of twentieth-century American literature. Known primarily as a poet, Guest worked in many styles all represented herein: essays, lectures, art criticism, literary and art reviews, as well as forms of fiction, biography, poetic prose, drama, comics, and other mixed-genre pieces. This collection of the poet's prose illuminates Guest's singular genius, highlighting her structural awareness of language and placing her within the vanguard of American poetry. Much of her writing initially appeared in special editions, often through collaborations with visual artists. Lyrical and intellectually soaring, this collection is a treasure of insights into the relationship between language, image, and imagination. Joseph Shafer's introduction provides a meaningful context for sixty years worth of critical and creative prose by one of America's finest poets. Albrecht Durer Jane Campbell

Hutchison, 2003-08-29. Hutchison's book is a complete guide on Durer and the research on his work, his historical import, and his aesthetic legacy. Pitch of Poetry Charles Bernstein, 2016-03-28. Praised in recent years as a calculating improvisatory essential poet by Daisy Fried in the New York Times, Charles Bernstein is a leading voice in American literary theory. Pitch of Poetry is his irreverent guide to modernist and contemporary poetics. Subjects range across Holocaust representation, Occupy Wall Street, and the figurative nature of abstract art. Detailed overviews of formally inventive work include essays on or pitches for a set of key poets from Gertrude Stein and Robert Creeley to John Ashbery, Barbara Guest, Larry Eigner, and Leslie Scalapino. Bernstein also reveals the formative ideas behind the magazine LANGUAGE. The final section, published here for the first time, is a sweeping work on the poetics of stigma, perversity, and disability that is rooted in the thinking of Edgar Allan Poe, Emily Dickinson, Ralph Waldo Emerson, and William Blake. Pitch of Poetry makes an exhilarating case for what Bernstein calls echopoetics: a poetry of call and response, reason and imagination, disfiguration and refiguration.

Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2009. An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School, including John Ashbery, who is often considered America's greatest living poet. Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years. The Window in Art Carla Gottlieb, 1981. Exhibition of Albert Dürer's Engravings, Etchings, and Dry-points, and Most of the Woodcuts Executed from His Designs Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Print Department, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Print Dept., 1888. Poetry Project, 2002. Invisible

Terrain Stephen J. Ross, 2017-07-21 In his debut collection Some Trees 1956 the American poet John Ashbery poses a question that resonates across his oeuvre and much of modern art How could he explain to them his prayer that nature not art might usurp the canvas When Ashbery asks this strange question he joins a host of transatlantic avant gardists from the Dadaists to the 1960s neo avant gardists and beyond who have dreamed of turning art into nature of creating art that would be valid solely on its own terms in the way nature itself is valid in the way a landscape not its picture is aesthetically valid Clement Greenberg 1939 Invisible Terrain reads Ashbery as a bold intermediary between avant garde anti mimeticism and the long western nature poetic tradition In chronicling Ashbery's articulation of a completely new kind of realism and his engagement with figures ranging from Wordsworth to Warhol the book presents a broader case study of nature's dramatic transformation into a resolutely unnatural aesthetic resource in 20th century art and literature The story begins in the late 1940s with the Abstract Expressionist valorization of process surface and immediacy summed up by Jackson Pollock's famous quip I am Nature that so influenced the early New York School poets It ends with Breezeway a poem about Hurricane Sandy Along the way the project documents Ashbery's strategies for literalizing the stream of consciousness metaphor his negotiation of pastoral and politics during the Vietnam War and his investment in bad nature poetry The Collected

Poems of Barbara Guest Barbara Guest, 2013-09-01 Winner of the SFSU Poetry Center Book Award 2010 One of the most notable members of the New York School and its best known woman Barbara Guest began writing poetry in the 1950s in company that included John Ashbery Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler And from the beginning her practice placed her at the vanguard of American writing Guest's poetry saturated in the visual arts extended the formal experiments of modernism and played the abstract qualities of language against its sensuousness and materiality Now for the first time all of her published poems have been brought together in one volume offering readers and scholars unprecedented access to Guest's remarkable visionary work This Collected Poems moves from her early New York School years through her more abstract later work including some final poems never before published Switching effortlessly from the real to the dreamlike the observed to the imagined this is poetry both gentle and piercing seemingly simple but truly and beautifully dislocating
