THE STRENGTH OF DURGA: A PERCEPTION ISHANI BHATTACHARYA, Lifeless or lively the choice is ours Divine or demonic the choice is ours Worshiping an idol or worshipping our souls the choice is ours But then why do we choose to disrespect our strength Why do we choose to displease ourselves You think Durga has an answer for this Yes She does But you have to listen to your soul You have to introspect about yourself to hear what she says about choices which is the foundation of your strength Nobody is powerful they make themselves powerful they make constant effort to fight fears thoughts agony to shape themselves Durga was formed by the trinity because the trinity fell short of power They were at an endangering stage when the Devi was birthed Likewise we are formed by our parents Like Durga even we have a purpose but what we lack is awareness We are living but oblivious of who we are We are living but are wondering why we wander so much We don't know why we exist and that is exactly the idea of this book The Strength of Durga A Perception While the writers believed that they were penning down the strength of Durga they were in reality writing about how they envision themselves We have created a form of Durga but not sure if Durga looked like her so the idol that we imagine and write is our divine reflection our best self and that is a chapter that we have yet not touched Therefore the code of this book is plain Durga's Strength Your Strength And with this code you can unlock the meaning of this book Damascening on Steele Or Iron, as Practised in India Thomas H.
