During My Time:

During My Time Margaret B. Blackman, 2017-10-15 This book is the first life history of a Northwest Coast Indian woman Florence Davidson daughter of noted Haida carver and chief Charles Edenshaw was born in 1896 As one of the few living Haida elders knowledgeable about the culture of a bygone era she was a fragile link with the past Living in Masset on the Queen Charlotte Islands some fifty miles off the northwest coast of British Columbia Florence Davidson grew up in an era of dramatic change for her people On of the last Haida women to undergo the traditional puberty seclusion and an arranged marriage she followed patterns in her life typical of women of her generation Florence's narrative edited by Professor Blackman from more than fifty hours of tape recordings speaks of girlhood of learning female roles of the power and authority available to Haida women of the experiences of menopause and widowhood Blackman juxtaposes comments made by early observers of the Haida government agents and missionaries with appropriate portions of the life history narrative to portray a culture neither traditionally Haida nor fully Canadian a culture adapting to Christianity and the imposition of Canadian laws Margaret Blackman not only preserves Florence Davidson's memories of Haida ways but with her own analysis of Davidson's life adds significantly to the literature on the role of women in cross cultural perspective The book makes an important contribution to Northwest Coast history and culture to the study of culture change to fieldwork methodology and to women's studies

Gender Inequality in the Ordained Ministry of the Church of England Alex D.J. Fry, 2023-09-14 This book offers a fresh social scientific analysis of how theologically conservative male clergy respond to the ordination of women to the priesthood and their consecration as bishops within the Church of England The question of women's place in the formal structures of England's Established Church remains contested For many to prevent women from occupying such offices is often understood to be a matter of inequality whereas those who oppose their ordination see it as a matter of obedience to God's will Tensions have become heightened in a culture that increasingly promotes the rights of individuals who have historically been marginalised and that challenges traditional social roles This volume explores the gender attitudes held by clergy in the Anglo Catholic and evangelical traditions of the Church and considers how these gender attitudes shape the way they think about women's ordination and how they interact with female colleagues It also considers the contribution of a range of social phenomena to the formation of these gender attitudes The author draws on and develops a variety of sociological and psychological theories that help to explain the processes that lead to the formation of clergy attitudes towards gender more broadly

Mazes in Videogames Alison Gazzard, 2013-04-17 From the text adventures of Zork to the arcade game of Pac Man to the corridors of Doom and on to the city streets of Grand Theft Auto IV the maze has often been used as a space to trap and confuse players in their navigation of gameworlds However the maze as a construction on the landscape has a long history before the invention of the videogame By examining the change in the maze from the landscapes of open spaces and closed gardens through to the screen of the videogame both mazes and labyrinths are discussed in terms of historical reference alongside the author's personal experiences of walking and playing these structures. This book shows how our cultural experiences of real world maze landscapes may have changed and how we negotiate videogame worlds along the various paths and meanings they so often create for us.

A Uro-Oncology Nurse Specialist's Reflection on her Practice Journey Beverley Anderson, 2022-03-22 This book provides a unique insight and background of a uro oncology nurse's career from a personal and professional perspective one that encapsulates the ever changing dynamics in the nursing profession over 40 years 1970's to current 2022. In writing this book the objective is to devise a beneficial point of reference one that is conducive to enlightening individuals within the healthcare profession and the wider context on the art of reflection and acknowledging its benefits in terms of exploring their feelings and understanding their meaning. Reflection is a highly beneficial tool. In this context the process enables the author to reflect constructively on her nursing career and practice to highlight the positive as well as the negative aspects within that practice and illustrate how the experiences gained have contributed to her development personally and professionally throughout that journey. Reflection includes deliberate reflection on experience emotions actions and responses and acknowledging how essential these have been to informing the author's existing knowledge base and in ensuring a higher level of learning and understanding. In the continued quest to deliver optimal healthcare the objective of reflection is in enabling healthcare individuals e.g. nursing students newly qualified nurses or those considering change of nursing speciality to better understand their patients from a holistic standpoint physical psychological psycho social spiritual cultural and economic and ultimately improving the individual patient's overall experience cancer or otherwise as well as improving and enhancing practice outcomes. The importance of reflection and its contribution to increasing the healthcare professional's self awareness emotional personal and professional is also well underlined. Various Modules and Case Studies within the book are used to explain and highlight key issues and to enhance content and visual acuity.

The Retail Coalman ,1903 Augustinian and Ecclesial Christian Ethics D. Stephen Long,2018-08-15 What is the relationship between the command to love one s enemies and the use of violence and or other coercive political means This work examines this question by comparing and contrasting two important contemporary approaches to Christian ethics neoAugustinian and the ecclesial or neoAnabaptist It traces the complicated conversation that has taken place since John Howard Yoder took on Reinhold Niebuhr s interpretation of the Anabaptists in the 1940 s It consists of three parts The first part traces the development of the Augustinian Niebuhrian approach to ethics from Niebuhr through those who have advanced his work including Paul Ramsey Timothy Jackson Charles Mathewes Eric Gregory and Jennifer Herdt It also examines the Augustinian ethics of Oliver O Donovan John Milbank and Nicholas Wolterstorff Along with tracing the Augustinian approach and its trajectories through agapism theology and the interpretation of Augustine it identifies fifteen criticisms that this approach brings against the neoAnabaptists The second part traces the origin of the ecclesial or neoAnabaptist approach and then examines its relationship to and criticism of agapism what theological doctrines are central and its interpretation of Augustine Its purpose is primarily constructive by explaining the role that ecclesiology Christology and eschatology have among the neoAnabaptists The third part addresses the criticisms levied by Augustinians against the neoAnabaptists by drawing on the constructive theology in the second part It intends to show where the Augustinian critics are correct where they have missed key theological teachings and where they misrepresent It also assesses the summons to the nationalist project the Augustinians put to the neoAnabaptists If this work is successful this third part will not be defensive It will instead illumine the reasons for the criticisms and suggest means by which the conversation that began between Yoder and Niebuhr can continue and possibly bear fruit for theological ethics in both its ecclesial and nationalist projects for generations to come
