Duty Of Memory:

The Duty of Memory Sébastien Ledoux, 2025-07-01 Within France the expression duty of memory le devoir de mémoire speaks to a complex and ever evolving relationship with the past Emerging in the 1970s this term raised questions about memorialization which dominated public debates in the 1990s highlighting France's entanglements with colonialism and the Holocaust Drawing on a variety of interviews archival sources and data surveys author Sébastien Ledoux spotlights how the trajectory of this term offers a lens for understanding contemporary societies relationship with the past on a global scale

Trauma and Memory Studies: Responses from India and Beyond Simi Malhotra, Sheikh Sana Assad, Farhana Tasnim, Somya Charan Pahadi, Sango Bidani, 2025-09-20 This edited volume offers a comprehensive revaluation of Trauma and Memory Studies foregrounding perspectives from India and beyond It critically interrogates the prevailing Eurocentric paradigm within the field advocating for the amplification and contextualization of voices originating from South Asian spatial and temporal contexts Departing from conventional West North centric narratives the text prioritizes the narratives of historically marginalized survivor groups encompassing individuals affected by pivotal events such as the 26/11 terror attacks in Mumbai the Bengal famine the dispersion of the Indian diaspora and the experiences of incarcerated populations in Iran Kenya Palestine etc Through an in depth exploration of societal mechanisms for remembrance and coping strategies vis à vis traumatic episodes such as the Jallianwala Bagh massacre the book unveils the intricate interplay of political cultural and social dynamics It explores the complicated dynamics of post colonial and post conflict societies in India by using a range of interdisciplinary methodologies such as examining artistic expressions oral histories and digital media It discusses the ongoing debate between hegemonic historical narratives and the often marginalized voices of subaltern communities This book serves as an indispensable resource for academics students and researchers committed to the exploration of trauma and memory within non Western contexts

Memory Studies in India, 2025-05-29 This pioneering volume marks a significant contribution to memory studies in India offering an in depth exploration of how collective and individual memories shape and reshape identities narratives and historical knowledge By addressing a diverse array of topics from forgotten events massacres and monuments to public spaces and food rituals across various epochs the essays in this collection bring new insights into India's complex cultural history With contributions from scholars across different stages of their academic careers this volume not only enriches the field of memory studies but also paves the way for future research in India and beyond

Memories and Postmemories of the Partition of India Anjali Roy, 2019-07-12 This book examines the afterlife of Partition as imprinted on the memories and postmemories of Hindu and Sikh survivors from West Punjab to foreground the intersection between history memory and narrative It shows how survivors script their life stories to reinscribe tragic tales of violence and abjection into triumphalist sagas of fortitude resilience industry enterprise and success At the same time it reveals the silences stutters and stammers that interrupt survivors narrations to bring attention to the untold stories

repressed in their consensual narratives By drawing upon current research in history memory narrative violence trauma affect home nation borders refugees and citizenship the book analyzes the traumatizing effects of both the tangible and intangible violence of Partition by tracing the survivors journey from refugees to citizens as they struggle to make new homes and lives in an unhomely land Moreover arguing that the event of Partition radically transformed the notions of home belonging self and community it shows that individuals affected by Partition produce a new ethics and aesthetic of displacement and embody new ways of being in the world An important contribution to the field of Partition studies this book will be of interest to researchers on South Asian history memory partition and postcolonial studies Memory, History, Justice in Hegel Angelica Nuzzo, 2012-04-05 This reconstruction of the work of dialectical memory in Hegel raises the fundamental question of the principle that presides on the articulation of history and indicates in Hegel s philosophy two alternative models of conceiving history one that grounds history on ethical memory the other that sees justice as the moving principle of history Routledge International Handbook of Memory Studies Anna Lisa Tota, Trevor Hagen, 2015-09-16 The Routledge International Handbook of Memory Studies offers students and researchers original contributions that comprise the debates intersections and future courses of the field It is divided in six themed sections 1 Theories and Perspectives 2 Cultural artefacts Symbols and Social practices 3 Public Transnational and Transitional Memories 4 Technologies of Memory 5 Terror Violence and Disasters 6 and Body and Ecosystems A strong emphasis is placed on the interdisciplinary breadth of Memory Studies with contributions from leading international scholars in sociology anthropology philosophy biology film studies media studies archive studies literature and history The Handbook addresses the core concerns and foundations of the field while indicating new directions in Memory Studies The Art of Return James Meyer, 2019-09-11 More than any other decade the sixties capture our collective cultural imagination And while many Americans can immediately imagine the sound of Martin Luther King Jr declaring I have a dream or envision hippies placing flowers in gun barrels the revolutionary sixties resonates around the world China s communist government inaugurated a new cultural era African nations won independence from colonial rule and students across Europe took to the streets calling for an end to capitalism imperialism and the Vietnam War In this innovative work James Meyer turns to art criticism theory memoir and fiction to examine the fascination with the long sixties and contemporary expressions of these cultural memories across the globe Meyer draws on a diverse range of cultural objects that reimagine this revolutionary era stretching from the 1950s to the 1970s including reenactments of civil rights antiwar and feminist marches paintings sculptures photographs novels and films Many of these works were created by artists and writers born during the long Sixties who were driven to understand a monumental era that they missed These cases show us that the past becomes significant only in relation to our present and our remembered history never perfectly replicates time past This Meyer argues is precisely what makes our contemporary attachment to the past so important it provides us a critical opportunity to examine our own relationship to
