Dying Acts:

Dying Acts Fiona Macintosh, 1995 Dying Acts explores the relationship between the dramatic representations of death in two societies where elaborate rituals make death and dying a part of the process of living in a way that is now alien to most modern Western societies But it is not simply the shared conception of death that makes a comparison between the Greek tragedies and the Irish plays written some two and a half thousand years later both a valuable and instructive task The fact that mythical material just as in classical Greece forms the basis for many Irish plays written during the Literary Revival also makes such a comparison useful Moreover the writers of the Irish tragedies discussed notably Yeats O Casey and Synge explicitly turned to the Greek tragedians as exempla in their attempt to found a national theatre The Irish hero Cuchulain was regularly compared to the Greek heroes Heracles and Achilles by Celtic scholars no less than by the playwrights themselves This wide ranging study uncovers the genuine affinities which do exist and examines the political and social context of their works It is a subtle and intelligent exploration with unexpected and rewarding conclusions Final Acts Nan Bauer-Maglin, Donna Perry, 2009-12-07 Today most people die gradually from incremental illnesses rather than from the heart attacks or fast moving diseases that killed earlier generations Given this new reality the essays in Final Acts explore how we can make informed and caring end of life choices for ourselves and for those we love and what can happen without such planning Contributors include patients caretakers physicians journalists lawyers social workers educators hospital administrators academics psychologists and a poet and among them are ethicists religious believers and nonbelievers Some write moving personal accounts of good or bad deaths others examine the ethical social and political implications of slow dying Essays consider death from natural causes suicide and aid in dying assisted suicide Writing in a style free of technical jargon the contributors discuss documents that should be prepared health proxy do not resuscitate order living will power of attorney decision making over medical interventions life support hospice and palliative care aid in dying treatment location speaking for those who can no longer express their will and the roles played by religion custom family friends caretakers money the medical establishment and the government For those who yearn for some measure of control over death the essayists in Final Acts from very different backgrounds and with different personal and professional experiences around death and dying offer insight and hope Law, Immunization and the Right to Die Jennifer Hardes, 2016-03-10 Law Immunization and the Right to Die focuses on the urgent matter of legal appeals and judicial decisions on assisted death Drawing on key cases from the United Kingdom and Canada the book focuses on the problematic paternalism of legal decisions that currently deny assisted dying and questions why the law fails to recognize what many describe as compassionate motives for assisted death When cases are analyzed as discourses that are part of a larger socio political logic of governance judicial decisions it is argued here reveal themselves as relying on the construction of neoliberal fictions fictions that are here elucidated with reference to Michel Foucault's theoretical insights on pastoral power and Roberto

Esposito's philosophical thesis on immunization Challenging the socio political logic of neoliberalism the issue of assisted dying goes beyond the predominant legal concern with protecting or immunizing individuals from one another in favor of minimal interference This book calls for a new kind of politics one that might affirm people and their finitude both more collectively and more compassionately Acts of the General Assembly of His Majesty's Province of New Brunswick ... New Brunswick, 1894 Acts & Laws Passed by the Legislature Vermont, 1913 Acts and Resolves Passed by the General Court of Massachusetts Massachusetts, 1889 Acts and Resolves Passed by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, 1913 Clinical Bioethics James F. Drane, 1994-03 Medical practice is an inherently ethical enterprise More than ever before medical practice requires that medical professionals develop and exercise high ethical standards Health care practitioners who ignore basic concepts of medical ethics risk exposing their patients to serious harm and open themselves and their institutions to charges of malpractice Clinical Bioethics provides for the busy clinical professional a concise comprehensive treatment of the basics in this complex new field The Catholic epistles and Revelation Philip Schaff, 1889 Departure and Consolation George Lewis Parsenios, 2005-02-01 In contrast to the common opinion that the Johannine Farewell Discourses represent solely the Jewish genre of the Testament George Parsenios argues that features of the discourses are misread or missed completely apart from Greco Roman literature Evidence from classical drama for instance assists in reading Jesus' return to the Father as a dramatic exit and further accounts for the puzzling delay of Jesus at 14:31 without recourse to redaction theories Consolation literature and the literary symposium emphasize Jesus' continuing and consoling presence with particular attention to the Paraclete's role as doppelgänger The thread that binds the various chapters into a coherent whole therefore is the utility of classical literature in clarifying Jesus' consoling presence even after his departure to the Father The Finance Acts, 1894-1919 James Webster-Brown, 1921 The Acts Relating to the Income Tax Great Britain, Stephen Dowell, 1902 Acts and Resolutions Passed at the ... Session of the General Assembly of the State of Iowa Iowa, 1929 Index of Colonial and State Laws Between the Year 1663 and 1877 Inclusive John Hood, 1877 The Income Tax Acts Herbert St. George Peacock, Rollo F. Graham Campbell, 1901 The Law Times Reports, 1899 A Popular Commentary on the New Testament Philip Schaff, 2025-02-15 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 Rhetoric and Drama in the Johannine Lawsuit Motif George L. Parsenios, 2010 George L. Parsenios explores the legal character of the Gospel of John in the light of classical literature especially Greek drama Johannine interpreters have explored with increasing interest both the legal quality and the dramatic quality of the Fourth Gospel but often do not connect these two ways of reading John Some interpreters even assume that the one approach excludes the other and that John is either legal or dramatic but not both Legal rhetoric and tragic drama however were joined throughout antiquity in a complex pattern of mutual influence To connect John to drama therefore is to connect John to legal rhetoric and doing so helps to see even more clearly the pervasiveness of the legal motif in the Gospel of John

Tracing the legal character of seeking in Sophocles Oedipus Rex for example sheds new light on the legal character of seeking in the Fourth Gospel especially in the enigmatic comment of Jesus at John 8 50 New insights are also offered regarding the evidentiary character of the signs of Jesus based on comparison with Aristotle s comments about signs and rhetorical evidence in both the Poetics and Rhetoric as well as by comparison with plays by Aeschylus Sophocles and Euripides To call the signs of Jesus evidence however does not remove them from the dialectical tension inherent in Johannine theology If the signs are evidence they are evidence in a world in which the basis of forming judgments has been problematized by the appearance of the Word in the flesh
