Dying To Kill The Allure Of Suicide Terror:

Dying to Kill Mia Bloom, 2005 What motivates suicide bombers in Iraq and around the world Can winning the hearts and minds of local populations stop them Will the phenomenon spread to the United States These vital questions are at the heart of this important book Mia Bloom examines the use strategies successes and failures of suicide bombing in Asia the Middle East and Europe and assesses the effectiveness of government responses She argues that in many instances the efforts of Israel Russia and the United States in Iraq have failed to deter terrorism and suicide bombings Bloom also considers how terrorist groups learn from one another how they respond to counterterror tactics the financing of terrorism and the role of suicide attacks against the backdrop of larger ethnic and political conflicts Dying to Kill begins with a review of the long history of terrorism from ancient times to modernity from the Japanese Kamikazes during World War II to the Palestinian Tamil Iraqi and Chechen terrorists of today Bloom explores how suicide terror is used to achieve the goals of terrorist groups to instill public fear attract international news coverage gain support for their cause and create solidarity or competition between disparate terrorist organizations She contends that it is often social and political motivations rather than inherently religious ones that inspire suicide bombers In her chapter focusing on the increasing number of women suicide bombers and terrorists Bloom examines Sri Lanka where 33 percent of bombers have been women Turkey where the PKK used women feigning pregnancy as bombers and the role of the Black Widows in the Chechen struggle against Moscow The motives of individuals whether religious or nationalist are important but the larger question is what external factors make it possible for suicide terrorism to flourish Bloom describes these conditions and develops a theory of why terrorist tactics work in some instances and fail in others

Countering Terrorism and Insurgency in the 21st Century James J. F. Forest, 2007-06-30 The attacks of September 11 2001 inaugurated a new global era of counterterrorism policy and activity led by the United States Countering Terrorism and Insurgency in the 21st Century analyzes the most significant dimensions of combating terrorism including considerations of strategic and tactical issues hard power soft power and counterintelligence the need to thwart sources and facilitators weak governments ill conceived foreign policy and trafficking in drugs guns and humans and the incorporation of lessons learned thus far from combating terrorism around the globe Since the dawn of the new millennium combating terrorism has become a primary focus of security professionals throughout the world The attacks of September 11 2001 inaugurated a new global era of counterterrorism policy and activity led by the United States while many countries from Algeria and Spain to Sri Lanka and Indonesia have redoubled their efforts to combat their own indigenous terrorism threats In the United States the counterterrorism goals identified in the National Strategy for Combating Terrorism 2006 can only be achieved through significant multinational cooperation These goals are to advance effective democracies as the long term antidote to the ideologies of terrorism to prevent attacks by terrorist networks to deny terrorists the support and sanctuary of rogue states to deny terrorists control of any nation they would use as a base and launching pad for terror and to lay the foundations and build the institutions and structures we need to carry the fight forward against terror and help ensure our ultimate success At this point in the development of the global counterterrorism efforts it is particularly important to pause for reflection on a number of critical questions What do we know about effectively countering terrorism What are the characteristics of successful or unsuccessful counterterrorism campaigns What do we need to learn in order to do this better Countering Terrorism and Insurgency in the 21st Century addresses these and related questions contributing to national security policy as well as to our understanding of the terrorist threat and how it can be defeated Volume 1 Strategic and Tactical Considerations examines issues of hard power soft power and intelligence counterintelligence Volume 2 Sources and Facilitators covers state failure border controls democracy promotion networks and trade and trafficking and societal issues Volume 3 Lessons Learned from Combating Terrorism and Insurgency includes case studies of counterterrorism operations e g the hijacking of the Achille Lauro the 1993 bombing of the World Trade Center and the capture of key terrorist suspects like Ramzi Youssef and Khalid Sheikh Mohamad and case studies of long term efforts to combat terrorism e g the Basques in Spain the Tamil Tigers in Sri Lanka Israel s struggle against Palestinian terror organizations Peru and Sendero Luminoso and Japan and Aum Shinrikyo

Towards the Dignity of Difference? Dr Mojtaba Mahdavi, Professor W Andy Knight, 2012-10-28 This volume suggests that there is a third way of addressing global tensions one that rejects the extremes of both universalism and particularism This third way acknowledges the dignity of difference and promotes both self respect and respect for others It is also a radical call for an epistemic shift in our understanding of us other and good evil The authors strengthen their alternative approach with a practical policy guide by challenging existing policies that either exclude or assimilate other cultures that wage the constructed global war on terror and that impose a western neo liberal discourse on non western societies

Terrorist Groups and the New Tribalism Jeffrey Kaplan, 2010-02-25 The central focus of this book is a small but vitally important group of movements that constitute a distinct fifth wave of modern terrorism here called the New Tribalism Terrorist Groups and the New Tribalism examines a collection of terrorist or insurgent movements whose similarity in tactics strategic vision and desire to radically reshape their worlds to conform with a Golden Age dream of perfection which is to be achieved through a genocidal or ethnic cleansing process to make way for the emergence of a new radically perfected tribal utopia in a single generation These shared strategic and tactical factors allow them to be examined through a comparative lens as a distinct fifth wave of modern terrorism Structured around the theoretical framework of David Rapoport s Four Waves thesis the book examines anomalous movements that began within a distinct wave of international terrorism but following a crisis model has turned inwards toward radical localism tribalism and xenophobia The text is divided between theory and in depth case studies of the Ugandan Lord s Resistance Army and the Sudanese Janjaweed It concludes with a design for further field work based research This book will be of interest to students of Terrorism and Political Violence Genocide Conflict Studies African politics and Political Science in general Jeffrey Kaplan
