Dynamics Of Conflict In Northern Ireland Power Conflict And Emancipation:

The Dynamics of Conflict in Northern Ireland Joseph Ruane, Jennifer Todd, 1996-11-13 This book offers a uniquely comprehensive account of the conflict in Northern Ireland providing a rigorous analysis of its dynamics and present structure and proposing a new approach to its resolution It deals with historical process communal relations ideology politics economics and culture and with the wider British Irish and international contexts It reveals at once the enormous complexity of the conflict and shows how it is generated by a particular system of relationships which can be precisely and clearly described The book proposes an emancipatory approach to the resolution of the conflict conceived as the dismantling of this system of relationships Although radical this approach is already implicit in the converging understandings of the British and Irish governments of the causes of conflict The authors argue that only much more determined pursuit of an emancipatory approach will allow an agreed political settlement to emerge

Torture and Human Rights in Northern Ireland Aoife Duffy, 2019-03-28 This book presents a compelling and highly sophisticated politico legal history of a particular security operation that resulted in one of the most high profile torture cases in the world It reveals the extent to which the Ireland v United Kingdom judgment misrepresents the interrogation system that was developed and utilised in Northern Ireland Finally the truth about the operation is presented in a comprehensive narrative sometimes corroborating secondary literature already in the public domain but at other times significantly debunking aphorisms or indeed lies that circulated about interrogation in depth The book sets out the theoretical reference paradigm with respect to the culture and practice of state denial often associated with torture and uses this model to excavate the buried aspects of this most famous of torture cases Through the lens of a single operation conducted twice it presents a fascinating expos of the complicated structures of state sponsored denial designed to hide the truth about the long term effects of these techniques and the way in which they were authorised

Transforming conflict through social and economic development Sandra Buchanan, 2016-05-16 Transforming conflict through social and economic development examines lessons learned from the Northern Ireland and Border Counties conflict transformation process through social and economic development and their consequent impacts and implications for practice and policymaking with a range of functional recommendations produced for other regions emerging from and seeking to transform violent conflict It provides for the first time a comprehensive assessment of the region's transformation activity largely amongst grassroots actors enabled by a number of specific funding programmes namely the International Fund for Ireland Peace I II and III and INTERREG I II and IIIA These programmes have been responsible for a huge increase in grassroots practice which to date has attracted virtually no academic analysis this book seeks to fill this gap In focusing on the politics of the socioeconomic activities that underpinned the elite negotiations of the peace process key theoretical transformation concepts are firstly explored followed by an examination of the social and economic context of Northern Ireland and the border counties The three programmes and their impacts are then assessed before considering what policy lessons can be learned and what recommendations can be made for practice This is underpinned by a range of semi structured interviews and the author s own experience as a project promoter through these programmes in the border counties for more than a decade The book will be essential reading for students practitioners and policymakers in the fields of peace and conflict studies conflict transformation peacebuilding post agreement reconstruction and the political economy of conflict and those interested in contemporary developments in the Northern Ireland peace process      Regional and Ethnic Conflicts Judy Carter,George Irani,Vamik D Volkan,2015-07-02 This book provides readers alternative first hand front line perspectives and insights on some of the major ethnopolitical conflicts plaguing the planet It promotes the cultivation of a global culture of conflict prevention and peace promotion      Managing Terrorism and Insurgency Cameron I. Crouch,2009-09-10 This book examines how governments can weaken the regenerative capabilities of terrorist and insurgent groups The exploration of this question takes the form of a two tier examination of three insurgent actors whose capacity to regenerate weakened in the past the Front de lib ration du Qu bec FLQ of Canada the Movimiento de Liberaci n Nacional Tupamaros MLN T of Uruguay and the Provisional Irish Republican Army PIRA of Northern Ireland during the mid 1970s At the first level of its examination the book investigates the extent to which the regenerative capacities of the FLQ MLN T and PIRA weakened because of an increase in attrition and a decrease in recruitment The primary objectives of this analysis are to uncover whether a declining intake of recruits played a lesser equal or greater role than a burgeoning loss of personnel in weakening the capacities to regenerate of the three insurgent actors and in turn to shed greater light on the broader validity of the prevailing view in conflict studies that a decrease in recruitment is more important than an increase in attrition in effecting the corrosion of an insurgent actor s capacity to regenerate At the second level of its exploration the book assesses the effectiveness of five of the most prominent policy prescriptions in the literature and insurgent recruitment and attrition ameliorating grievances selective repression discrediting insurgent ideology improving intelligence collection and restricting civil liberties This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism and counter terrorism conflict studies strategic studies and security studies in general Cameron Crouch is currently an Analyst at Allen Consulting Group an Australian economics and public policy consulting firm He has a PhD from the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre at The Australian National University      Politics in the Republic of Ireland John Coakley,Michael Gallagher,2017-12-01 Politics in the Republic of Ireland is now available in a fully revised sixth edition Building on the success of the previous five editions it continues to provide an authoritative introduction to all aspects of the government and politics in the Republic of Ireland Written by some of the foremost experts on Irish politics it explains analyses and interprets the background to Irish government and contemporary political processes It devotes chapters to every aspect of contemporary Irish government and politics including the political parties and elections the constitution the Taoiseach and the governmental system women and politics the role of parliament and Ireland s place within the European Union Bringing students up to date with the very latest developments especially with the upheaval in the Irish party system Coakley and Gallagher combine substance with a highly readable style providing an accessible textbook that meets the needs of all those who are interested in knowing how politics and government operate in Ireland

Democracy as Conflict Management in Northern Ireland kathryn Marie Lesedi Smith Derksen,1998

Building Sustainable Peace Armin Langer,Arnim Langer,Graham K. Brown,2016 Countries emerging from civil war or protracted violence often face the daunting challenge of rebuilding their economy while simultaneously creating the political and social conditions for a stable peace The implicit assumption in the international community that rapid political democratisation along with economic liberalisation holds the key to sustainable peace is belied by the experiences of countries such as Iraq and Afghanistan Often the challenges of post conflict reconstruction revolve around the timing and sequencing of different reform that may have contradictory implications Drawing on a range of thematic studies and empirical cases this book examines how post conflict reconstruction policies can be better sequenced in order to promote sustainable peace The book provides evidence that many reforms that are often thought to be imperative in post conflict societies may be better considered as long term objectives and that the immediate imperative for such societies should be people centred policies

Recognition, Equality and Democracy Jurgen De Wispelaere,Cillian McBride,Shane O'Neill,2013-10-18 This volume brings together a range of theoretical responses to issues in Irish politics Its organising ideas recognition equality and democracy set the terms of political debate within both jurisdictions For some there are significant tensions between the grammar of recognition concerned with esteem respect and the symbolic aspects of social life and the logic of equality which is primarily concerned with the distribution of material resources and formal opportunities while for others tensions are produced rather by certain interpretations of these ideas while alternative readings may by contrast serve as the basis for a systematic account of social and political inequality The essays in this collection will explore these interconnections with reference to the politics of Northern Ireland and the Republic The Republic has gone through a period in which its constitution was the focus for a liberal politics aimed at securing personal autonomy while Northern Ireland s political landscape has been shaped by the problem of securing political autonomy and democratic legitimacy While the papers address key questions facing each particular polity the issues themselves have resonances for politics on each side of the border

Ethnic Conflict Neal G. Jesse,Kristen P. Williams,2011 Politics

British-Irish Relations and Northern Ireland Brendan O'Duffy,2007 This book examines the evolution of British Irish relations since 1921 and applies theories from political and social sciences including international relations to the Irish Northern Irish case The book includes the generation and analysis of primary data on violence and constitutional debate the analysis of primary sources such as state papers and elite interviews with British and Irish officials representatives of constitutional political parties in Northern Ireland and leaders and activists of republican and loyalist parties organisations Part 1 looks at how the attempt to regulate the Irish nationalist challenge to the British state through dominion status for the Irish Free State and partition impacted on governance in both jurisdictions The re opening of the Northern Irish Question in the late 1960s is then analysed to demonstrate the continued primacy of opposing claims to national self determination and their impact on subsidiary levels of conflict The final part covering the year 1985 to the present then demonstrates how the relative equalization of national status reflected in the bi national inter governmental relationship has been successful in regulating conflict by integrating vertically the bi nationality at state governmental and societal levels Finally implications of the British Irish approach are developed as contributions to the comparative theory and practice of ethno national conflict regulation

Ethnic Conflict: Settlement of ethnic conflict Rajat Ganguly, 2009 Ethnic conflicts in various scales and forms are a feature of the post Cold War international landscape from which no region of the world is completely free In terms of impact it has been equally devastating for both developed and developing states Therefore there has never been a more appropriate time to study ethnic conflict in all its dimensions This four volume collection examines the many facets of ethnic conflict including their causes consequences and resolution Volume I Ethnic Identity includes articles dealing with the various interpretations and meanings of ethnicity and the debate surrounding the formation persistence and salience of ethnic identity Volume II Causes of Ethnic Conflict focuses on causal explanations of ethnic conflict Volume III The Consequences of Ethnic Conflict then focuses on the consequences or impacts of ethnic conflict Finally Volume IV The Settlement of Ethnic Conflict discusses articles that cover the settlement of ethnic conflict

Macalester International, 2009 American Book Publishing Record, 1996

Violence and Post-war Reconstruction Christina Steenkamp, 2009-05-30 In this pioneering study the author shows the impact of continuing physical insecurity upon the post war reconstruction process Steenkamp reveals the serious implications for the reconstruction of state policy and society and for the quality of peace that emerges

Journal of International Affairs, 1998 Political Leadership and the Northern Ireland Peace Process Cathy Gormley-Heenan, 2007-02-15 This book argues that much of the literature on political leadership has made little meaningful connection with the issues of peace conflict and divided societies In providing a critical interpretation of political leadership during the Northern Ireland peace process Cathy Gormley Heenan shows how the leadership lens offers insights not offered by conventional analyses of peacemaking processes Using interviews with political elites in Northern Ireland the book discusses the confusions contradictions and chameleonic nature of leadership and its role capacity and effect

Participation, 1996 Choice, 2005 Justice, Community and Civil Society Joanna Shapland, 2008 This book delves into the contested relationship between criminal justice and the public Written by experts from different countries as a new initiative in comparative criminal justice it reveals how different the intrinsic cultural attitudes in relation to criminal justice are across Europe
