Transformative Education Charlotte Graham,Philippe Longchamps,2022-08-03 Transformative Education aims decisively to transform the world of education and to nurture the next generation to become problem solvers and creative thinkers empowered with the necessary skills to make this world a better place It provides practical methods for sustainable integrative and active learning and investigates the why behind these proven and effective methods. Discussing the different levels of subject integration in school from intradisciplinary to transdisciplinary, teaching the authors analyse their potential holistic impact and knowledge retention effectiveness. With a substantial section on the efficacious teaching of the increasingly indispensable field of critical thinking, this book is built up first around a discourse of the intended methodology; secondly, it also includes a very practical mid-section with direct and meticulously described project ideas for teachers to try out; and finally, a discussion and an analysis on what effects the proposed techniques might have and how teachers and students could be facilitated in their learning processes by school leaders and administrators. This pioneering endeavour is an important text for education professionals globally as well as for the policy makers that regulate their work. It may also be of interest to parents and to a wider society. Additional digital resource content is available online and includes practical examples, explanations, and video to help support sustainable integrative and active learning.

The Ultimate Guide to Lesson Planning Carol Thompson, Lydia Spenceley, Mark Tinney, Elaine Battams, Ann Solomon, 2024-02-29. This practical guide will help you to plan evidence-informed innovative lessons that can be adapted to meet your individual student's needs. Modelled on a typical lesson plan, the book covers all aspects of planning such as learning aims, starting a lesson, resources, and activities, embedding skills, and assessment. Each chapter features a wide range of activities and strategies that can be used every day and easily adapted for different learners. The chapters also explore what to do when lessons don't go to plan and how to use technology effectively to support learning. Throughout, there are nuggets of useful theory to help you reflect not only on what works in the classroom but why. Written by an expert author team and linked to the early career framework, this is essential reading for all trainee and early career teachers across a wide range of educational settings.

Leonard Stöckel - Teacher of Hungary LIT Verlag, 2024-12-20. Leonard Stöckel, Teacher of Hungary, offers the first comprehensive English translation and analysis of key writings by one of the most influential figures of the Lutheran Reformation in Central Europe. Known as the Praeceptor Hungariae, Teacher of Hungary, Leonard Stöckel (1510-1560) shaped the religious and educational landscape of 16th-century Upper Hungary through his distinctive integration of Lutheran theology with humanist educational principles. This volume presents English translations of Stöckel's major works related to catechesis and religious pedagogy, including his recently rediscovered Catechism (1556), the Confessio Pentapolitana (1549), and selected portions of his sermons and school regulations. The accompanying analysis reveals Stöckel's sophisticated synthesis of faith and learning (pietas docta) and his lasting influence on Protestant education and theology in Central Europe. Essential reading for scholars of Reformation studies, historical theology, and educational history, this volume illuminates how Stöckel's integration of Lutheran orthodoxy with humanist learning shaped Protestant intellectual culture in Central Europe. This scholarly edition provides the first complete English translations of Stöckel's key writings, detailed historical context, and theological analysis. New insights into Reformation education and catechesis. Critical examination of his theological method and humanist pedagogy.
