From the creator of one of China's most rapidly growing apps comes the next evolution of social media providing a voice and subsequent business opportunities to the digitally underserved. The Chinese app Kuaishou isn't just another large livestreaming platform competing with TikTok or Facebook Reels. What makes it different? Rather than focusing on the latest hot topic or celebrity publicity stunt, Kuaishou strives to ensure equitable access to the digitally underserved or neglected. Kuaishou's founders' approach is working wonders. More than 300 million people use Kuaishou every day, and the platform enabled over 20 million people to earn income through e-commerce each year, and this book tells the entire fascinating story in the age of livestreaming. The Age of Livestreaming describes the leadership vision of Kuaishou's founders to enhance every person's unique sense of happiness and shows how the rapid development of livestreaming has facilitated dynamic growth in e-commerce across a broad range of industries and products, particularly the fashion industry. It provides critical insights every business leader should be considering today. The Future of Livestreaming: Livestreaming is remolding supply chains, redefining products based on demand, and reforming and energizing businesses, and will result in the restructuring of many businesses and the creation of a new commercial entity. The Impact of Livestreaming: Livestreaming's chain from consumers to livestreamers to products is the most efficient transactional model. Livestreaming e-commerce will give rise to a more equal, friendlier, and trusting world, and it holds the potential to alleviate poverty and rejuvenate rural societies throughout the world. Apply the lessons in The Age of Livestreaming to position your business at the front end of the livestreaming economy revolution.

Engaging Audience M. Elizabeth Weiser, Brian Fehler, Angela Marta González, 2009

This collection of essays about audience awareness from professionals in the English public relations and writing fields is based on the latest work of scholars Lisa Ede and Andrea Lunsford. This collection builds upon Lisa Ede and Andrea Lunsford's groundbreaking work to examine the rhetorical concept of audience as it relates to twenty-first-century teaching and learning. Editors M. Elizabeth Weiser, Brian M. Fehler, and Angela M. González bring together compositionists from the departments of English, communications, public relations, and writing to offer insights that serve as a guide for incorporating audience awareness into the contemporary classroom. Contributors engage in a dialogue with Ede and Lunsford's previously published essays: Audience Addressed, Audience Invoked, The Role of Audience in Composition Theory and Pedagogy, and Representing Audience: Successful Discourse and Disciplinary Critique, as well as their new essay Among the Audience: On Audience in an Age of New Literacies, written especially for this collection. Through these engagements, contributors offer insights on audience from divergent perspectives: composition pedagogy, new media studies, service learning, and professional writing diversity and rhetorical and literary theory that establish a third category in the addressed/invoked binary: an audience updated that takes various professional and cultural forms but is most evidently audience interacting. Advanced
