Ruins in the Literary and Cultural Imagination Efterpi Mitsi, Anna Despotopoulou, Stamatina Dimakopoulou, Emmanouil Aretoulakis, 2019-11-28 This book focuses on literal and metaphorical ruins as they are appropriated and imagined in different forms of writing Examining British and American literature and culture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the book begins in the era of industrial modernity with studies of Charles Dickens Thomas Hardy Henry James and Daphne Du Maurier It then moves on to the significance of ruins in the twentieth century against the backdrop of conflict waste and destruction analyzing authors such as Beckett and Pinter Kurt Vonnegut Robert Lowell Anne Sexton and Leonard Cohen The collection concludes with current debates on ruins through discussions of Walter Benjamin and Bertolt Brecht as well as reflections on the refugee crisis that take the ruin beyond the text offering new perspectives on its diverse legacies and conceptual resources

Life after Ruin Noam Leshem, 2017 Noam Leshem examines the radical transformation of Arab landscapes seized by Israel in the 1948 war By looking at the spatial history of Arab villages Leshem highlights the intricate and often intimate engagements between Jews and Arabs in the present day

Altered Pasts Richard J. Evans, 2014-02-14 A bullet misses its target in Sarajevo a would be Austrian painter gets into the Viennese academy Lord Halifax becomes British prime minister in 1940 instead of Churchill seemingly minor twists of fate on which world shaking events might have hinged Alternative history has long been the stuff of parlor games war gaming and science fiction but over the past few decades it has become a popular stomping ground for serious historians The historian Richard J Evans now turns a critical slightly jaundiced eye on a subject typically the purview of armchair historians The book's main concern is examining the intellectual fallout from historical counterfactuals which the author defines as alternative versions of the past in which one alteration in the timeline leads to a different outcome from the one we know actually occurred What if Britain had stood at the sidelines during the First World War What if the Wehrmacht had taken Moscow The author offers an engaging and insightful introduction to the genre while discussing the reasons for its revival in popularity the role of historical determinism and the often hidden agendas of the counterfactual historian Most important Evans takes counterfactual history seriously looking at the insights pitfalls and intellectual implications of changing one thread in the weave of history A wonderful critical introduction to an often overlooked genre for scholars and casual readers of history alike Cabinet ,2007 Place Matters Jonathan Bordo,Blake Fitzpatrick,2022-12-15 A place comes into existence through the depth of relationships that underwrite a physical location with layers of sedimented names In Place Matters scholars and artists conduct varied forms of place based inquiry to demonstrate why place matters Lavishly illustrated the volume brings into conversation photographic projects and essays that revitalize the study of landscape Contributors engage the study of place through an approach that Jonathan Bordo and Blake Fitzpatrick call critical topography the way that we understand critical thought to range over a place or how thought and symbolic forms invent place through text and image as if initiated by an X marking the spot Critical topography s tasks are to mediate and to diminish the gap between representation and referent to be both in the world and about the world to ask what place is this what are its names where am I how and with what responsibilities may I be here Chapters map the deep cultural environmental and political histories of singular places interrogating the charged relation between history place and power and identifying the territorial imperatives of place making in such sites as Colonus Mont Sainte Victoire Chomolungma Everest Hiroshima Fort Qu Appelle Donetsk airport and the island of Lesbos With contributions from the renowned artists Hamish Fulton and Edward Burtynsky the Swedish poet Jesper Svenbro and others the collection examines profound shifts in place based thinking as it relates to the history of art the anthropocene and nuclear ruin borders and global migration residential schools the pandemic and sites of refuge In his prologue W J T Mitchell writes Places like feasts are moveable They can be erased and forgotten lost in space or maintained and rebuilt Both their appearance and disappearance their making and unmaking are the work of critical topography Global in scope Canadian in spirit and grounded in singular sites Place Matters presents critical topography as an approach to analyze interpret and reflect on place Russia's Ruin E.
