The Twentieth-Century Spanish American Novel Raymond L. Williams,2003 A Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Book Spanish American novels of the Boom period 1962 1967 attracted a world readership to Latin American literature but Latin American writers had already been engaging in the modernist experiments of their North American and European counterparts since the turn of the twentieth century Indeed the desire to be modern is a constant preoccupation in twentieth century Spanish American literature and thus a very useful lens through which to view the century s novels In this pathfinding study Raymond L Williams offers the first complete analytical and critical overview of the Spanish American novel throughout the entire twentieth century Using the desire to be modern as his organizing principle he divides the century s novels into five periods and discusses the differing forms that the modern took in each era For each period Williams begins with a broad overview of many novels literary contexts and some cultural debates followed by new readings of both canonical and significant non canonical novels A special feature of this book is its emphasis on women writers and other previously ignored and or marginalized authors including experimental and gay writers Williams also clarifies the legacy of the Boom the Postboom and the Postmodern as he introduces new writers and new novelistic trends of the 1990s
