C J Allen 1862 1956 Sculptor And Teacher:

C.J. Allen 1862-1956 Matthew H. Clough, University of Liverpool. Art Gallery, 2003-01-01 Though best known for his role at the forefront of the New Sculpture movement C J Allen also spent more than thirty years as a respected and influential teacher at the University of Liverpool and the Liverpool City School of Art His dual roles as sculptor and teacher enabled him to establish and nurture a tradition of sculptural practice in Liverpool that continues to this day C J Allen 1862 1956 is the richly illustrated catalog to the first ever retrospective of Allen s work Considering everything from Allen s best known piece Liverpool s Victoria Monument to his numerous smaller commissions the essays in this volume reveal the life work and legacy of a master sculptor "Art in the North of England, 1979?008 " Gabriel N. Gee, 2017-07-05 Based on rare archival material and numerous interviews with practitioners Art in the North of England 1979 2008 analyses the relation between political and economic changes stemming from the 1980s and artistic developments in the principal cities of the North of England in the late 20th century Looking in particular at the art scenes of Liverpool Manchester Leeds Sheffield and Newcastle Gabriel Gee unveils a set of powerful aesthetic reactions to industrial change and urban reconstruction during this period on the part of artists including John Davies Pete Clarke the Amber collective Richard Wilson Karen Watson Nick Crowe Ian Rawlinson John Kippin and the contribution of organisations such as Projects UK Locus East Street Arts the Henry Moore Sculpture Trust and the Bluecoat Gallery in Liverpool While the geographical focus of this study is highly specific a key concern throughout is the relationship between regional national and international artistic practices and identities Of interest to all scholars and students concerned with the developments of British art in the second half of the 20th century the study is also of direct pertinence to observers of global narratives which are here described and analysed through the concept of trans industriality The Paris Commune in Britain Laura C. Forster, 2025-04-26 Following the defeat of the Paris Commune in May 1871 thousands of Commune militants fled France to avoid imprisonment deportation or death As a result and due in large part to Britain s liberal asylum policy around 3500 refugees arrived in Britain in the early 1870s These exiles and the revolution they represented generated a widening ripple that reverberated through British political culture The Paris Commune in Britain is a book about radical ideas and the people and places that make them It is about how ideas are forged propagated and lived and the mechanisms by which past radicalisms are mobilised in new presents The focus is the political refugees who came to Britain following the defeat of the Paris Commune in 1871 Considering the intellectual impact of these revolutionary refugees and the longer cultural and political afterlives of the Paris Commune in Britain the book reconstructs a transnational intellectual history alive to the intimate embodied spatial active and emotional contexts in which these political ideas were produced and exchanged The book argues that the Paris Commune mattered in Britain Its diffuse legacies operated across differing scales from intimate friendships that prompted individual political conversions to the production of international symbols able to galvanise a nationwide socialist movement And these legacies waned and waxed in the decades long after the Commuuard refugees left Britain In exploring these different scales of influence the book makes broader contributions to modern British French and European social cultural and intellectual history as well as urban history and the history of exile and migration more generally Making and Meaning in Insular Art Rachel Laura Moss,2007 This collection of papers explores the artistic achievements of Early Medieval Ireland Scotland Wales and England and their continued resonance down to the Late Medieval period Twenty three interdisciplinary studies focus on a range of subjects from the world famous Book of Kells to less well known objects such as Anglo Saxon decorated pins The presentation of recent discoveries and innovative research methodologies shed new light on familiar artworks while more theoretical deliberations challenge traditional approaches to the study of this area Almost without exception manuscripts metalwork sculpture and architecture are examined against their broader contexts geographical historical and cultural illustrating the complexity of influences that contributed to the making and meaning of Insular art Jacket Art Journal ,1960 The Burlington Magazine ,2003 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Biography Index Bea Joseph,1988 A cumulative index to biographical material in books and magazines The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association.
