Cabinetmakers Of The Eastern Seaboard:

Cabinetmakers of the Eastern Seaboard Charles H. Foss, Richard Vroom, 1977 Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner, Mary F. Williamson, 1991-01-01 Identifies and summarizes thousands of books article exhibition catalogues government publications and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981 Coalescence of Styles Jane L. Cook, 2001-01-17 From the mid eighteenth century on cultural life in the northern valley of the St John River blended the traditions of Acadian and French Canadian settlers with those of American immigrants In the southern valley Mi kmaq interacted with American newcomers and Loyalist settlers while the later influx of Scottish and Irish immigrants introduced more layers of cultural traditions Using an impressively diverse combination of artifacts artwork maps and primary literature from over sixty museum collections and archives Cook addresses the experiences of immigrants and artisans and their influence on the cultural boundaries along one of eastern North America s most important rivers She moves beyond a mere catalogue of objects to provide an important comparative analysis of material heritage showing how furniture embodied the lifestyles of differing groups of settlers Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada s official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers Immigrant Life in New York City, 1825-1863 Robert Ernst, 1994-10-01 This is a historical study of acculturation in New York City It documents the Americanization of foreign enclaves within the city showing the effects produced by church school foreign language press and libraries the methods by which the Democratic Party enlisted the immigrant vote The Bulletin of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1919 New series v 6 10 include 77th 81 Report of the trustees 1946 50 previously published separately Eighteenth-Century Art Worlds Michael Yonan, Stacey Sloboda, 2019-02-21 While the connected international character of today s art world is well known the eighteenth century too had a global art world Eighteenth Century Art Worlds is the first book to attempt a map of the global art world of the eighteenth century Fourteen essays from a distinguished group of scholars explore both cross cultural connections and local specificities of art production and consumption in Africa the Americas Asia and Europe The result is an account of a series of interconnected and asymmetrical art worlds that were well developed in the eighteenth century Capturing the full material diversity of eighteenth century art this book considers painting and sculpture alongside far more numerous prints and decorative objects Analyzing the role of place in the history of eighteenth century art it bridges the disciplines of art history and cultural geography and draws attention away from any one place as a privileged art historical site while highlighting places such as Manila Beijing Mexico City and London as significant points on globalized map of the eighteenth century art world Eighteenth Century Art Worlds combines a broad global perspective on the history of art with careful attention to how global artistic concerns intersect with local ones offering a framework for future studies in global art history
