Hindu Mahasabha in Colonial North India, 1915-1930 Prabhu Bapu, 2013 Hindu nationalism has emerged as a political ideology represented by the Hindu Mahasabha This book explores the campaign for Hindu unity and organisation in the context of the Hindu Muslim conflict in colonial north India in the early twentieth century It argues that India's partition in 1947 was a result of the campaign and politics of the Hindu rightwing rather than the Islamist politics of the Muslim League alone The book explains that the Mahasabha articulated Hindu nationalist ideology as a means of constructing a distinct Hindu political identity and unity among the Hindus in conflict with the Muslims in the country It looks at the Mahasabha's ambivalence with the Indian National Congress due to an extreme ideological opposition and goes on to argue that the Mahasabha had its ideological focus on an anti Muslim antagonism rather than the anti British struggle for India's independence adding to the difficulties in the negotiations on Hindu Muslim representation in the country The book suggests that the Mahasabha had a limited class and regional base and was unable to generate much in the way of a mass movement of its own but developed a quasi military wing besides its involvement in a number of popular campaigns Bridging the gap in Indian historiography by focusing on the development and evolution of Hindu nationalism in its formative period this book is a useful study for students and scholars of Asian Studies and Political History Being English Sayan Chattopadhyay, 2021-11-29 This book critically examines the cultural desire for anglicisation of the Indian middle class in the context of postcolonial India It looks at the history of anglicised self fashioning as one of the major responses of the Indian middle class to British colonialism The book explores the rich variety of nineteenth and twentieth century writings that document the attempts by the Indian middle class to innovatively interpret their personal histories their putative racial histories and the history of India to appropriate the English language and lay claim to an English identity It discusses this unique quest for Englishness by reading the works of authors like Michael Madhusudan Dutt Rabindranath Tagore Cornelia Sorabji Nirad C Chaudhuri Dom Moraes and Salman Rushdie An important intervention this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of postcolonial studies Indian English literature South Asian studies cultural studies and English literature in general Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association, 1998 Beyond Representation Crispin Bates, 2006 The volume explores how the British rule and colonial constructions of identity affected the Indians It studies the impact of colonialism on Indian identity from the point of view that emphasizes disjunctures as much as continuities It also steps beyond this paradigm by airing a cross section of new and original research that examines the agency of Indians themselves in the process of identity formation and dialogical nature of Indian cultures Colonial and Post-colonial Encounters Niaz Zaman, Firdous Azim, Shaikat Hussain, 2000 The Essays In This Volume Discuss The Influence Both Direct And Indirect Of Edward Said And His Seminal Work Orientalism Among Other Issues Discussed In This Volume Are Post Coloniality Identity Forming And Writings By George Orwell Salman Rushdie Shashi Tharoor And Amitav Ghosh Rhetoric and Reality Avril Ann Powell, Siobhan Lambert-Hurley, 2006 Revised version of papers presented at the two day Workshop on Gender and the Colonial Experience in South Asia held at Dhaka in December 2002 Victorian Representations of War Gilles Teulié, 2007 Re-formation of Identity Hawon Ku Kim, 2007 The Indian Decisions (Old Series) T.
