Inaccessible Access Kelly Fagan Robinson, Mark T. Carew, Nora Ellen Groce, 2024-11-15 Inaccessible Access ethnographically addresses barriers to inclusion within knowledge making It focuses on the social environmental communicative and epistemological barriers that people with disabilities confront and embody throughout the course of their learning and living and in the specific context of their higher education institutions and in research It is presented by a neurodiverse disabled and non cis cohort of authors all of whom acknowledge a continuum of in access that is available to each contributor contingent on their inherent intersectionalities and alterities The authors and editors of this book foreground the work that has yet to be done on recognizing the value of nonnormative ways of approaching being in and knowing research and higher education particularly in cases where disability centered epistemologies are sidelined in confrontation with institutional norms even within existing discourses concerning equality and alterity
