Virtual Leadership Penny Pullan,2016-08-03 The future of work is virtual with dispersed teams telecommuting remote working and virtual meetings becoming the norm across sectors and industries around the world However leading virtual teams requires a new set of skills and a facilitative leadership approach Virtual Leadership is here to help At its best virtual working can be productive and creative tapping into the best people wherever they are and bringing skills and experience together efficiently and at low cost But it can also lead to isolated and disengaged workers ineffective communication and uncoordinated and even counter productive activity Virtual Leadership provides practical strategies tools and solutions for the key issues involved in managing at a distance How can I provide leadership motivation and vision through virtual channels How do I make virtual meetings effective engaging and productive and ensure actions are followed through How do I create engaged and cohesive teams across distance cultures and languages How do I stop virtual team members silently checking out distracted by local challenges and offline issues With diverse case studies and examples this is the essential guide to making a difference as a leader of virtual work

Next Generation Leadership Adam Kingl,2020-02-04 Employers who don t adapt to the expectations of younger generations are losing top talent as they leave for positions at companies with modern practices Learn what companies need to do to fit into the new normal in the workplace Generation Y sees the world differently than any other generation in modern memory and nowhere is this more evident than in the workplace The shifts that this generation has seen in the economy technology and the world have changed what they want from life and work which is not a 9 5 existence for forty plus years leading to a typical retirement at sixty five What older generations call a poor work ethic from a spoiled generation Gen Y sees as a different way of doing things Companies that take the time to listen realize that what Gen Y is asking for isn t that crazy in fact it s better in many ways such as A demand for work life balance isn't a cry for fewer work hours it's a cry to be able to work from outside the office beyond a rigid 9 5 schedule which can lead to Gen Y employees working even more hours than you expected Leaving a job after a couple years isn't an inability to commit it's a need to learn more expand their experience and develop their career at a faster pace which is helpful to companies that hire those individuals including your own Elevating nontraditional benefits over financial benefits is a step toward creating an emotional connection to the company where employees spend most of their time and invest mental and emotional efforts The need to work for a company with a purpose reflects the power that social media has on the social consciousness Next Generation Leadership will explore what's behind these shifts in the character of the emerging workforce It shows that as Gen Y assumes managerial positions the nature of leadership and business will change over the next few decades in irrevocable and profound ways

Quick Team-Building

Activities for Busy Managers Brian Cole Miller, 2015-03-25. Eliminate the need for time or resources on formal training and get your teams up and running themselves with only minutes of prep. Between workplace personnel being more culturally diverse than ever before, a generation of employees being raised attached to technology while avoiding human interaction and an increasing culture of competitiveness that is constantly raising tensions between cubicles, it has become absolutely essential for managers to focus more on camaraderie and building team spirit. Now in its second edition, Quick Team Building Activities for Busy Managers addresses the problems that drag down group productivity and helps teams collaborate successfully, cope with change, solve problems together, communicate better despite cultural and generational differences, boost creativity, leverage diversity, nurture healthy competition. Each of the 50 team building activities in this invaluable resource takes only minutes to prep and uses only everyday office items to get its point across. In just 15 minutes a day, the results will be immediate: sullen teams find sparkle, nervous teams gain confidence, teams of strangers get to know one another. There are even activities to help the virtual team. No one will be left out and all will leave the activity feeling better about their team and their individual role within it.
