Seikyo Times ,1996      Philosophy and Human Revolution Vinicio Busacchi,2018-12-13 This book collects a series of philosophical papers dedicated to the figure and work of Daisaku Ikeda The author s interest in studying Ikeda s work is not to carry out a specialised or disciplinary study of his Buddhist exegesis or to offer a critical synthesis from the point of view of its basic doctrinal contents and references nor to examine his creed and religious teaching Beyond the fact that Ikeda s work has the double face of a construction founded on a Japanese philosophical religious tradition with specific links to classical Chinese tradition interfaced with the globe s most representative literary scientific and speculative cultural products it was developed according to an intercultural design strongly marked by western rationality and a spiritual speculative pragmatic approach to life and the world Throughout this book the author proposes an agnostic suspension in order to leave a place for philosophy and its argumentative constructions      Living Buddhism ,2004      Soka Education Daisaku Ikeda,2010-09-01 From the Japanese word meaning to create value this book presents a fresh perspective on the question of the ultimate purpose of education Mixing American pragmatism and the Buddhist philosophy of respect for all life the goal of Soka education is the lifelong happiness of the learner Rather than offering practical classroom techniques this book speaks to the emotional heart of both the teacher and the student With input from philosophers and activists from several cultures it advances the conviction that the true purpose of education is to create a peaceful world and to develop the individual character of each student in order to achieve that goal This revised edition contains four new chapters that further elaborate on how to unlock self motivated learning and how to empower the learner to make a difference in their communities and the world      Chanting in the Hillsides Jeaneane D. Fowler,Merv Fowler,2009 In 1983 a tiny group of people in Cardiff and a married couple in Aberporth West Wales were the only Welsh members of Soka Gakkai International a Japanese movement based on the beliefs and teachings of the 13th century Buddhist Nichiren Daishonin Today there are hundreds of members in Wales and the Borders This book examines the history of the movement in these two areas and draws on original research gleaned from the members themselves The research elicits facets of their faith practices and study as well as their testimonies to the success of such beliefs and practices in their daily lives The book combines the twin goals of academic analysis of the Buddhism of Nichiren Daishonin in general with the warmth of its expression in the lives of its adherents in Wales and the Borders      Japanese Publications in Foreign Languages, 1945-1990 ,1990 Bibliografi opstillet efter emner Omfatter b ger trykt i og uden for Japan      Peace, Value, and Wisdom George David Miller,2002 This book introduces readers to the Buddhist based philosophy of education of Daisaku Ikeda Ikeda s philosophy of education offers human revolution value creation and dialogue as counterweights to the violence lurking in today s classrooms Where education becomes wisdom based it transforms learners into keen assessors of their inner lives and establishes a foundation for global citizenship      Faith, Practice, and Study Daisaku Ikeda,2024-09-01 Faith Practice and Study is a compilation of

Daisaku Ikeda's lectures from the Buddhism of the Sun series about the pillars of Nichiren Buddhist practice faith practice and study In this book we learn how to strengthen our faith in the dharma and as a result develop confidence in the power of our lives In addition we can further understand how to practice the principles of Nichiren Buddhism leading lives of compassion and harmony with our environment Finally he explains that through Buddhist study we can elevate our state of life and understand the meaning behind our current situation and how to make the more effective causes to lead a victorious life

The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1990      Hope and Joy in Education Isabel Nuñez,Jason Goulah,2021

Introduces educators and scholars to the legacy and import of Daisaku Ikeda as a singular philosopher educator and institution builder thus enriching current education discourse In the process the book illuminates the benefits of cross cultural research and learning by considering the relevance of Ikeda's thought not only to established streams of pedagogy and practice in the Deweyan tradition but also to emerging trends in education research such as ecocritical education and critical race feminism

The Sōka Gakkai News Sōka Gakkai,1990      The Cumulative Book Index ,1985 A world list of books in the English language

Cultures ,1973      Buddhist-Based Universities in the United States Tanya Storch,2015-05-05 Buddhist Based Universities in the United States Searching for a New Model in Higher Education investigates in depth four American Buddhist universities namely the Dharma Realm Buddhist University the University of the West the Soka University of America and the Naropa University all of which offer degrees in liberal arts and professional fields and at the same time educate their students in the philosophy and practices of Buddhism Buddhist universities in the United States are unique because there are no comparable universities based on the philosophy and practices of other Asian religions also popular in the United States such as Hinduism Confucianism or Sikhism Even the Jewish community has created only two universities in which professional skills and liberal arts are taught from the position of the moral philosophical principles of Judaism This book presents the institutional history and academic programs of four Buddhist universities in America and analyzes Buddhist based pedagogical principles as well as teaching and learning techniques which can be very useful for other colleges and universities in the United States
