Dakota Memory:

Violence and Public Memory Martin Blatt, 2023-06-23 Violence and Public Memory assesses the relationship between these two subjects by examining their interconnections in varied case studies across the United States South America Europe the Middle East and Africa Those responsible for the violence discussed in this volume are varied and the political ideologies and structures range from apartheid to fascism to homophobia to military dictatorships but also democracy Racism and state terrorism have played central roles in many of the case studies examined in this book and multiple chapters also engage with the recent rise of the Black Lives Matter movement The sites and history represented in this volume address a range of issues including mass displacement genocide political repression forced disappearances massacres and slavery Across the world there are preserved historic sites memorials and museums that mark places of significant violence and human rights abuse which organizations and activists have specifically worked to preserve and provide a place to face history and its continuing legacy today and chapters across this volume directly engage with the questions and issues that surround these sometimes controversial sites Including photographs of many of the sites and events covered across the volume this is an important book for readers interested in the complex and often difficult history of the relationship between violence and the way it is publicly remembered

Indigenous Activism in the Midwest Margret McCue-Enser, 2025-09-01 In Indigenous Activism in the Midwest Refusal Resurgence and Resisting Settler Colonialism Margret McCue Enser examines how Minnesota Indigenous activists use public memory sites to interrupt and challenge the dominant narrative of place She explores how Indigenous activism reveals and disrupts material discursive and performative rhetorics of settler colonialism This work cultivates the ground between rhetorical studies of place and space and Indigenous studies in which place is central to Indigeneity and activism Using largely in situ analysis and drawing on Indigenous and rhetorical scholarship as well as Indigenous and mainstream press the analysis focuses on sites such as an outdoor art installation a historic settlers village centennial and sesquicentennial farms and a celebrated military fort

Comprehensive Evaluations Nancy Mather, Lynne E. Jaffe, 2010-11-11 An invaluable collection of sample case reports from experts in child and adolescent assessment With contributions from authorities in the fields of psychology and special education including Dawn Flanagan Elaine Fletcher Janzen Randy Kamphaus Nadeen Kaufman George McCloskey Jack Naglieri Cecil Reynolds and Gale Roid Comprehensive Evaluations provides over fifty sample case reports to help you draft carefully planned goal directed and comprehensive evaluations that clearly explain the reasons for a student's school related difficulties from preschool to postsecondary level A wellspring of information for educational professionals Comprehensive Evaluations provides models for writing diagnostic reports to accompany the tests most frequently administered in the evaluation of children adolescents and adults including the BASC 2 KABC II WAIS IV WISC IV and WJ III The reports reflect various disciplines within psychology and education different theoretical perspectives and paradigms and span a broad spectrum of disabilities The diagnostic reports found within Comprehensive Evaluations will help Expand your familiarity with widely used test instruments Enhance your understanding of the interpretation of test scores Improve your ability to tailor written reports to the purposes of the evaluation Translate assessment results into meaningful treatment recommendations Recognize the differences in what evaluators from various school districts agencies and private practices consider to be a comprehensive evaluation Appreciate how your theoretical perspective and choice of tests can influence diagnostic conclusions Determine a report writing style that meets your needs Comprehensive Evaluations deftly illustrates how thorough assessments help empirically pinpoint the reasons a student is struggling in school which then allows an evaluator to select the most appropriate accommodations and interventions to help the student succeed

Into the Sunset \(A Western Light Book #3\) Mary Connealy,2024-10-15 Will the sun set on their chance at happiness before they can seize it To finally escape the clutches of her controlling husband and the threat of being recommitted to an asylum Ginny Rutledge enlists the help of her friends Maeve O Toole and Dakota Harlan Fleeing their own tumultuous pasts the group embarks on a journey to prove Ginny s sanity However as they confront the shadows they wish they could forget danger looms from unexpected places Maeve grapples with her mother s impending remarriage and seizes a rare chance to escape her homestead but that means reuniting with Dakota the man she holds responsible for her father s death who is caught in the crosshairs of a vengeful family As the two of them navigate their shared history and a dangerous mission Dakota is forced to confront his deepest fears and fight for the woman who has unwittingly captured his heart
