Mniyo, Robert Goodvoice, 2020-02 2021 Scholarly Writing Award in the Saskatchewan Book Awards This book presents two of the most important traditions of the Dakota people the Red Road and the Holy Dance as told by Samuel Mniyo and Robert Goodvoice two Dakota men from the Wahpeton Dakota Nation near Prince Albert Saskatchewan Canada Their accounts of these central spiritual traditions and other aspects of Dakota life and history go back seven generations and help to illuminate the worldview of the Dakota people for the younger generation of Dakotas also called the Santee Sioux The Good Red Road an important symbolic concept in the Holy Dance means the good way of living or the path of goodness The Holy Dance also called the Medicine Dance is a Dakota ceremony of earlier generations Although it is no longer practiced it too was a central part of the tradition and likely the most important ceremonial organization of the Dakotas While some people believe that the Holy Dance is sacred and that the information regarding its subjects should be allowed to die with the last believers Mniyo believed that these spiritual ceremonies played a key role in maintaining connections with the spirit world

The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools Cynthia Leanne Landrum, 2019-03-01 The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools illuminates the relationship between the Dakota Sioux community and the schools and surrounding region as well as the community s long term effort to maintain its role as caretaker of the sacred citadel of its people Cynthia Leanne Landrum explores how Dakota Sioux students at Flandreau Indian School in South Dakota and at Pipestone Indian School in Minnesota generally accepted the idea that they should attend these particular boarding institutions because they saw them as a means to an end and ultimately as community schools This construct operated within the same philosophical framework in which some Eastern Woodland nations approached a non Indian education that was simultaneously tied to long term international alliances between Europeans and First Peoples beginning in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Landrum provides a new perspective from which to consider the Dakota people s overt acceptance of this non Native education system and a window into their ongoing evolutionary relationships with all of the historic overtures and tensions that began the moment alliances were first brokered between the Algonquian Confederations and the European powers
