Japan English Publications in Print ,1998      The Life, Art and Religious Iconography of David Wright Peter French,2016-01-14 This book showcases the contribution Australian contemporary glass artist David Wright has made to Australian art and international glassmaking From 1970 until 2014 David Wright produced hundreds of high quality art glass windows for Australian public private and sacred spaces including significant national churches chapels and synagogues yet little scholarly research on the artist and his place in Australian art history exists Including the first catalogue raisonné ever produced on the artist combined with a close examination of his opus his influences manufacturing methods and personal history this book demonstrates for the first time the extraordinary contribution David Wright made to Australian art and contemporary glassmaking      Chihuly Jerusalem 2000 Dale Chihuly,2000 As we stand on the threshold of the new millennium here at the ancient Tower of David this is my own personal tribute says Dale Chihuly at the completion of his project in Israel Fifteen soaring sculptures made from more than ten thousand glass parts blown in France Japan the Czech Republic Finland Israel and the United States were specifically created to take advantage of the stone walls of the historic Citadel as well as the Mediterranean sunlight This full size book documents the yearlong exhibition with 117 full colour reproductions of Chihuly's sculptures his energetic drawings and his team as they install the exhibition These beautiful images are accompanied by Chihuly's affectionate letters to his young son Jackson about the joys and challenges of the project and his essay reprinted with permission from Ariel The Israel Review of Arts and Letters vol 111 1999 on his inspirations at the site Also included is an illuminating foreword by Shosh Yaniv director of the Tower of David Museum of the History of Jerusalem and a section containing seven insightful reviews of the exhibition This book offers an opportunity to share in a unique millennium celebration a joyous tribute by an artist as he captures the light history and essence of one of the greatest cities in the world      Art Museums of the World ,1987      Off Script Josh King,2016-04-26 Being a public figure is no walk in the park the world focuses on every move that politicians make and highlights their every mistake Image collapse can befall anyone whose carefully cultivated persona is pitted against intermediaries in the broadcast booths of cable news networks or behind the photo desks of newspapers magazines and today's host of digital platforms As a world traveling advance man an operative who orchestrates TV and photo ready moments involving important political figures Josh King has unique experience working with the reputations of officeholders candidates and other public figures In Off Script King leads readers through an entertaining and illuminating journey through the Hall of Infamy of some of the most catastrophic examples of political theater of the last quarter century Readers might remember these cringe worthy moments as simple cases of bad luck King argues instead that they were symptomatic of something larger our broad appetite for public embarrassment the media's business imperatives in satiating that craving and the propensity of politicians to serve it up on a platter often by pretending to be someone they're not while strutting on the public stage We tour recent history King calls it the Age of Optics to establish this syndrome and then turn to the Obama administration and what Josh calls the emergence of the Vanilla Presidency King argues that Barack Obama has been more guarded and more protective of the presidential persona than anyone in history and as we look to the elections of 2016 and beyond we have to wonder Will our future president follow Obama s example If so how will that influence the relationship between our nation s citizens and their leader
