Damien the Leper Priest:

Damien the Leper John Farrow, 1998-12-01 The great adventure of Damien the Leper began quietly over a century ago. Since then his remarkable story has become legend throughout the world. Joseph De Veuster left his secure life in Belgium, thrusting aside all thoughts of personal danger and spending the rest of his days as Father Damien, comforting the sick and the dying. Though virtually entombed among the living dead of a leper colony on the island of Molokai, Father Damien managed to find beauty and enchantment in the lush surroundings. His extraordinary journey of the spirit comes to life in John Farrow's splendid biography, which has become a classic over the years and is sure to endure as long as people thrill to deeds of valor and pay homage to the great spiritual truths so perfectly reflected in this unforgettable story of courage, sacrifice, and devotion. The Spirit of Father Damien Jan De Volder, 2010-09-13 Foreword by John Allen. Father Damien, famous for his missionary work with exiled lepers on the Hawaiian island of Molokai, is finally Saint Damien. His sanctity took 120 years to become officially recognized, but between his death in 1889 and his canonization in 2009, amid creeping secularization and suspicion of the missionary spirit he so much embodied, Fr. Damien De Veuster never faded from the world's memory. What kept him there? What keeps him there now? To find an answer, Belgian historian and journalist Jan De Volder sifted through Father Damien's personal correspondence as well as the Vatican archives. With careful and even-handed expertise, De Volder follows Father Damien's transformation from the stout, somewhat haughty missionary of his youth, bounding from Europe to Hawaii and straight into seemingly tireless priestly work, to the humble and loving shepherd of souls who eventually succumbed to the same disease that ravaged his flock. De Volder finds that as spiritual father, caretaker, teacher, and advocate, Father Damien accomplished many heroic feats for these poor outcasts. Yet the greatest gift he gave them was their transformation from a disordered, lawless throng, exiled in desperate anarchy into a living community built on Jesus Christ, a community in which they learned to care for one another. Every generation seems to have its own image of this world-famous priest. Already during his life on Molokai and at his death in 1889, many considered him a holy man. Even today, in the highly secularized Western world, he is widely admired. In 2005, his native Belgium honored him with the title of the greatest Belgian in a poll conducted by their public broadcasting service. Statues honor his memory in the National Statuary Hall of the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C. and at the entrance to the Hawaiian State Capitol in Honolulu. In 1995, in the presence of Mother Teresa of Calcutta, Pope John Paul II beatified him in Brussels, Belgium, and in 2009, Pope Benedict XVI canonized him in St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Today, Father Damien is the unofficial patron of outcasts and those afflicted with HIV/AIDS. De Volder contends that the common thread running through the saint's life is the spirit of Father Damien, that so speaks to the world, is at once uniquely Christian, fully human, and as important today as ever before. Damien, the Leper John Farrow, 1989-08-01 Describes the work of a nineteenth-century Belgian priest among outcast lepers of Hawaii's Molokai Island. Leper Priest of Molokai Richard Stewart, 2000-07 The story of Father Damien De Veuster, who arrived at Molokai in 1883, is a story of courage, sacrifice, and devotion. It is a story of a man who found his life's purpose in serving the most marginalized of people. His story is a testament to the power of faith and the human spirit.
