The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza,2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens s A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne s The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon s Jr s The Klansman basis for the film Birth of a Nation In recent years Nick Hornsby s About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding s Bridget Jones s Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work s title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation s of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered Whirlwind Michael Grant Jaffe,2004 Newly divorced and muddling through his late thirties Lucas Prouty is tired of forecasting weather in small town on the coast of North Carolina But everything changes when he becomes the lone meteorologist covering a monstrous hurricane Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography ,1895

The Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography ,1895 Four Generations Cookbook Beverly A. Benjamin,2016-12-29 As our six children moved out I would often receive a phone call asking Mom how did you make this What was the secret ingredient As a child I would watch my Mother cook and preserve fruit can and freeze vegetables bake and have family get together s to make Perogys I enjoyed cooking when I first took it in Junior High School and started to collect recipes I did a lot of family history and over the years I also was given many recipes from the family members plus saved many from other resources My Stepfather taught me the cooking of wild game to make it tender When I got married we had our own garden plus raised cattle chickens turkeys pigs rabbits and even tried ostriches We did our own butchering and I learned from my husband s boss how to do make headcheese from the pigs I made cottage cheese and butter from our milk cow I made sourdough from scratch also From our garden we froze a lot of the crop for the winter The fruit we grew got made into jams and jellies as well as the wild fruit that we picked Often we would go picking berries as a family outing or while Roy and I were haying the children would pick wild berries near the fields We would have a treat of fruit at the end of the day and the excess got made into preserves or into juice My one challenge was making bread even with a bread machine It never turned out Roy took over that challenge and got a recipe figured out that even now I cannot fail making bread The Grandchildren loved helping him make buns When Roy passed away I tried the recipe and when the Grandchildren tried the bread their remark was It taste s just like Grandpa s bread My recipes were in several boxes and I knew where the ones were that I used the most When I started entering my collection into a computer Roy suggested I should make a cookbook because I had a collection of over a century of recipes I have done that now and the collection has recipes from early 1900 s with the old way of the size of the ingredients like amount of butter the size of an egg up to modern amounts I also have enclosed tips that were given to me over the years plus a few old poems that have a special meaning to me

The Literary Filmography: Preface, A-L Leonard Mustazza,2006 A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work s title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation s of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered The book is published as a set of two volumes Replacement volumes can be obtained individually under ISBN 0 7864 2503 2 for Volume 1 and ISBN 0 7864 2504 0 for Volume 2

Dance Real Slow Michael Grant Jaffe,1996-04-25 Calvin eats dirt He never actually swallows it just places loose clumps onto his tongue and sucks I think He knows better my son but he is still young and needs to be watched So goes the poignant journey of discovery for Gordon Nash a journey that began two years ago when his wife suddenly walked out on him leaving him alone to raise their son Calvin is now four fragile yet stubborn devoted to his pet a dead Portuguese man o war he calls Mom Faced daily with the struggle and joys of raising this bright little boy Gordon learns the vast reaches of his affection and the limits of his patience He plumbs the deep well of rage within himself to find there disturbing echoes of his own father And he comes to understand that nothing is as important as this complex imperfect love a lesson he must turn to when his wife reappears one day threatening to turn his and Calvin s world upside down once again Publishers Weekly ,1995
