Dance Without a Rack of Bones Within James Victor Anderson, 2000      An Occasional Damage of Roses James Victor Anderson, 2014-08-28 The purpose of Anderson's poetry is not to try to seek that which is already within us but that which we have always known since infancy as a viable factor in where we have arrived And still we travel discover and grow with the speed of dawn Poetry which merely tells a story or points to a deeper meaning does not have the power of taking you by the leash and unfastening it That alone should frighten a traveler The art of poetry itself is never a saving factor but is merely a voice found in the heart of one who has never given up in spite of the beatings Doesn't this explain most of us still on the journey The traveler who has found his or her inner voice will understand Anderson's poetry through personal experience but to others it may be nothing more than indecipherable marks on an abandoned wall And may have through no fault of their own no need of it Whichever the case relish the disturbance and enjoyment of things that have always been yours and your right to reclaim them This book is best embraced in some quiet private place of comfort far away from the things that sent you there      Experiencing Dance Marty Sprague, Helene Scheff, Susan McGreevy-Nichols, Kelly Berick, 2024-10-15 Experiencing Dance From Student to Dance Artist Third Edition is geared toward students in dance II III and IV classes It places teachers in the role of facilitator and opens up a world of creativity and analytical thinking as students explore dance as an art form      Experiencing Dance Helene Scheff, Marty Sprague, Susan McGreevy-Nichols, 2005 This book takes students through the learning process to become an expert dancer It provides the skills required to identify movement potential warm up cool down effectively express ideas through dance develop choreography construct a professional portfolio      Dance Without A Rack Of Bones Within James Anderson, 2020-02-05 James Victor Anderson was nurtured by a world made up largely of Coos Bay's waterfront and sloughs sand dunes lakes and creeks forests of ancient trees wind rain fog and a wonderful old Scottish descended mother who steered him with a large wooden spoon For more than twenty years he studied the wonderful human faces of unforgettable small town seaport characters during his walks to and from school newspaper routes subscription drives and working in the mills and forests After high school he joined the Army because he didn't know what else to do with himself at the time Finding himself in an Army Airborne intelligence battalion where everyone but himself was college graduate he promptly followed the college route after separation from Uncle He applied himself with sporadic and questionable zeal at Linfield College during the early sixties and eventually emerged with meritorious degrees skills and commendations necessary to acquire the credentials he would need for thirty three years of teaching high school in the toughest logging town in Oregon Teaching English for both a high school and a community college was actually an academic afterthought which only enhanced his original mission of helping those who wished to escape from the conditions of rural poverty He retired from teaching in 1999 in order to fulfill his lifelong ambition of being a self supporting Taoist bum He spends his time now in hospice work wandering about and getting lost in downtown Roseburg      The Other Side of the
