Dancing In The Aisle:

Dancing in the Aisle Rochelle Melander, Harold Eppley, 1999 If we listen closely to children's voices if we pay attention to their actions and their habits and if we reflect on the stories they tell us we will learn something about our own journey of faith These are the spiritual lessons that Rochelle Melander and Harold Eppley have learned from the children in their lives In Dancing in the Aisle they present an engaging collection of stories from their own personal experience as parents pastors and friends of young children in order to explore what adults can learn from children about their relationship with God and the community of faith Through these stories some funny some touching readers are given a way to reflect on their own personal faith journey Dancing in the aisle : spiritual lessons we've learned from children Rochelle.
